MUSIC CLUB (ARIA)

Established– 2018

Music Club focuses on cultivation of musical talent around the college campus. Students get exposure to various musical activities throughout the academic years, develop and acquire rich array of musical skills. The Music Club is a precious part of the diverse life on campus, where the musical talent grows and where the leadership and inclusiveness get literally practiced and encouraged through the practicing sessions, club meetings and concert performances.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE CLUB

- The utmost priority of the club is to give a chance to each and every group member.
- To develop proper singing skills by giving different genre of songs (eg rock, qwwali, bollywood, gazal etc.)
- To learn how to use a microphone, because for any performance mic is the first thing that should be perfect and how to use it whether on high notes or low notes that is very important to know.
- To remove the stage phobia or mass interaction and build confidence.

The club creates a healthy atmosphere in the club, and everyone learns from each other because music or any other art is not something that stays only with one individual but is a skill that can be acquired by anyone through practice.
