Resource Person:

Prof. David Taylor

Venue: LPCPS Auditorium

29th August, 2018

“The origin of innovation and entrepreneurship is a creative mindset.”

Symposium on “ICE- Innovation, Creativity and Entrepreneurship” was conducted by Professor David Taylor on 29th August, 2018 at the LPCPS Auditorium. The symposium was designed to expand the teachers and students’ thought boundaries, allowing them to appreciate, understand and apply design innovation to solve problems that impact their day-to-day lives.

During the session, both the teachers and students encountered an environment where they solved problems using a hands-on approach and a mindset of innovation. They were introduced to the most up-to-date design methods that included problem formulation, creative ideation, and prototyping techniques. Invited speaker Prof. David Taylor was successful in various fields by sharing his inspiring life stories with participants showing that impossible is nothing?

The symposium detailed about entrepreneurship, self-assessment, and how to write a business plan. The session focused on what it means to be an entrepreneur and innovative thinking.

Throughout the self-assessment portion of the session, students got reflected on their passions and generate new ideas. Then participants collectively worked on a series of creative problem-solving activities and find innovative solutions for issues in their communities. Finally, students were able to learn the basics of a business model and practice developing their own business plan as a team.

“Students show tremendous interest in this activity, and we are always amazed with how much they can learn and apply within a day,” said Dr. L.S. Awasthi, Dean LPCPS. “The feedback obtained from the participants showed that the workshop was effective in teaching them how to develop and expand their entrepreneurial mindset through creativity and problem-solving activities.”

Addressing the changing paradigms of higher education, the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), Bengaluru developed Revised Accreditation Framework (RAF) to make the existing assessment and accreditation process more robust, objective, and transparent, outcome oriented and stakeholder friendly.

It is in this context, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies (LPCPS) organized a one day workshop under the theme, "NAAC Revised Accreditation Framework (RAF)" on 29th April, 2019. In all, participants attended the workshop. These included Dean LPCPS, IQAC Coordinators, and 10 faculty members of the college.

Inaugural Session

Dr. L.S. Awasthi, Dean Academics, LPCPS welcomed all the guests and participants and briefed the participants about the objective and rationale of the workshop. He informed that the Revised Accreditation Framework of NAAC has necessitated documentation of the details on all aspects related to Curriculum, Teaching-Learning, Student Support, Research, Infrastructure, Governance etc. He further expressed a hope that Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies would come forward for assessment and accreditation as an immediate outcome of this workshop.

Technical Session I

In this session, Prof. Rajiv Manohar, Director IQAC, University of Lucknow, made a detailed presentation on the Revised Accreditation Framework of NAAC. He explained minute details of the Assessment & Accreditation (A & A) process beginning with the eligibility criteria to online submission of 'Institutional Information for Quality Assessment (IIQA)'.

Next, he described as to how the HEI's applying for A & A process for the first time (Cycle1 Process) has to register and proceed. He informed that "IIQA User Manual" is available on the dashboard for help. Also, the required documents and the ones to be uploaded were also enlisted.

The IIQA Application Process was explained in detail. Thereafter, Prof. Rajiv Manohar discussed the changes introduced in the Revised Assessment and Accreditation (A&A) Framework in July 2017, representing an explicit paradigm shift making it ICT enabled, objective, robust and transparent. Subsequently, Prof. Rajiv Manohar explained all the seven Criteria to serve as basis for assessment of HEIs in detail. The Key Indicators, including the New Introduced ones, were also explained with suitable examples.

Prof. Rajiv Manohar concluded by saying that each and every data should be supported with verifiable document, therefore utmost care should be taken before submitting the SSR.

Technical Session II

In the post tea session, Dr. Mahendra Agnihotri, Assistant Professor, University of Lucknow, deliberated upon “Peer Team Visit”. He told the participants that in the revised framework, the number of Peer Team members and duration of visit has been reduced. Dr. Mahendra Agnihotri, cited many examples how any false information mentioned by the college in SSR is revealed by the Peer Team. He, cautioned, that such practise is not acceptable and the college should always submit only that information which could be verified. He also made it clear that the Peer Team is not for grievance redressal, therefore, the faculty, employees and students during interaction with Peer Team should put forth answers honestly and desist from forwarding their personal grievances.

Open Session

The last session of the workshop was to address the queries and questions of the participants. Prof. Rajiv Manohar and Dr. Mahendra Agnihotri jointly answered to the questions. The queries were related to online submission of AQAR, Student Satisfaction Survey, timeline for second cycle, data on student progression, placement in UG college etc.

“Teachers who make the time to prepare themselves to be mentors tend to have more satisfying and productive mentoring relationships than those who do not.”

Teachers have multiple roles to play; and to fulfill their roles professionally, they need competence in handling their responsibilities towards students in a variety of situations inside and outside the classrooms. Providing guidance and counselling is increasingly seen as a key component in ensuring the holistic development of students. Teachers who prepare themselves as mentors increase their potential to enhance student growth and development, help students maximize education experiences, and enrich their own teaching experience and professional development. Mentors often report that they gain exposure to new and diverse perspectives, improve coaching and listening skills, find work more meaningful and satisfying, hone desired leadership skills, and often become reengaged professionally.

Becoming a skilled mentor and counselor is a life-long process that places a premium on self-awareness, on a keen desire for personal growth, a sustained passion for learning, and an openness to feedback and the consequent call to adapt and change. Central to this evolution is the core realization that no two people are alike and no two people understand language in the same way – one’s understanding will always be linked to one’s personal experience of the world. A good educator knows this, and will not try to fit students into a preconceived mould/s but rather help them focus on their emotions, experiences and behavioural patterns to bring about growth and development.

The modern day educational system has advanced for the emotional, physical, psychological well-being of the child. Hence, the Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies, Lucknow organized a one day Staff Development Programme on “Mentoring and Counselling...key to holistic education” on 16 September 2019.

Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a Free Webinar in association with Career Launcher on topic "Career Challenges & Opportunities in Post- COVID Era" on May 23, 2020. Mr. Manuj Mittal, alumnus of IIM Calcutta and a Partner & Co- Founder of Career Launcher, Dehradun was the resource person of the Webinar where he talked on "Career Challenges & Opportunities in Post- COVID Era".

Mr. Manuj Mittal shared his views how COVID-19 crisis has affected societies and economies around the globe and will permanently reshape our world as it continues to unfold. While the fallout from the crisis is both amplifying familiar risks and creating new ones, change at this scale also creates new openings for managing systemic challenges, and ways to build back better.

Coverage

Topics covered during the workshop included:

1. The effectiveness of containment efforts is unknown, and the consumers' and companies' or firms' reactions are unknown. The reality is there is no single number that credibly captures or foresees what the impact of COVID-19 could be on the economy.
2. Financial markets are a relevant recession indicator, history has often shown that the markets do not necessarily lead to recession.
3. The good news is that we have a large domestic economy and the dependence on exports is not really high. The risk, of course, is that the economy was weakening even before the crisis.
4. As schools have closed in many parts of the world, could e-learning and e-delivery of education see a smart breakthrough?

The talk was attended by Faculty members and Students from BBA; B.Com; B.Com (H); BCA; B.Sc & BAJMC.

China is bouncing back from the effects of Coronavirus and the world is watching to see what they can expect in life after lockdown. It's around 90 percent of normal levels. 90 percent may sound good in most of the cases but for country's economy is not good. As global lockdown makes the economy to face the greatest challenge in living memory.

The Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies (LPCPS) organized a Webinar on the theme “POST COVID – 19: CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES” on 28th May, 2020 which was attended by Faculty members and Students perusing courses from LPCPS.

Dr. L.S. Awasthi, Dean Academics, LPCPS gave an overview on the topic as lot of people are struck at their home and have started to think that jobs that they used to have are no longer there. What do they need to do? What new skills they need to acquire? In order to equip themselves and get a new job. As most of pre Covid- 19 jobs may not be available anymore. Hence, people are seeking learning opportunities from home. This has created a new behavior and after this lot of students will question online classes along with normal classroom classes. Dr. Awasthi ended his speech with following words, “The prime point of the day is to refine the education in India to meet the ever-changing demands of the profession by making it relevant and industry-oriented.”

Renowned Professor A.K. Sengupta, Ex Pro Vice- Chancellor of University of Lucknow delivered his talk on Physical Distancing. Physical Distancing also called as Social Distancing is a public measure that can reduce the spread of a communicable disease. Droplets from a sneeze or cough can travel upto 6 feet or more. By keeping atleast 6 feet between yourself and others you can create a barrier of physical space to reduce the risk of germ spread. In addition to wearing a mask, physical distancing is critical to reduce the spread of COVID- 19. Physical Distancing is important at all times, be it at entering a building, walking on roads, waiting in line or just when you are talking to colloquies at your workplace. “COVID- 19 is not taking a break so please don’t take a break from protecting yourself and others by physical distancing.”

The second talk was delivered by Dr. Bhanu Pratap, Faculty of Law, University of Lucknow. Dr. Bhanu spoke on the dark side of COVID- 19 and explained around the world economics are crumbling. Since the corona virus outrage the price of every vital commodity is fallen. US department of labour has recorded the highest ever number of new unemployment claimed in the past 2 weeks. Just under 10 million, which shows how deep is the crises for world economy. Over the past 2 months the worlds biggest stock markets have turned red. When the dot com bubble burst in the year 2000 it took almost 2 years for the S&P 500 to drop by 49%. The 2007-2009 financial crises led to fall almost 60% in just a year. The cronavirus pandemic has already seen the market fall by 1/3rd in just one month.

In an effort to stop the virus, businesses have been forced to close and citizens isolated at home worldwide. It has caused a unique economic crises the impact of which will be greater on some industries particularly retailing, entertainment, hospitality like hotels and restaurants many of which are simply locked down and many of these businesses will have high cost which will not be able to recovered.

The third talk of the webinar was addressed by Dr. Ashish Kaushal, Assistant Professor, Department of Management, LPCPS. Dr. Ashish spoke how COVID- 19 has changed the way we see the word “globalisation”. Instead now we are looking at “localisation” because of countrywide lockdown; everything and every activity, except essential supplies came to a complete grinding halt. Actually, challenges doesn’t matter in life but how you deal with the challenges is important. COVID 19 has changed the way we live, we think, we work and even it has changed our necessities.

The fourth talk of the webinar was addressed by Dr. Vivek Shukla, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce, LPCPS. Dr. Shukla spoke that we all are aware about the effects that the Pandemic COVID19 has had on the Global Economy as almost 185 nations of the world are facing existential crisis. India being no exception to the condition, I think Post COVID challenges and opportunities depend on our perspectives and how we deal with them.

It depends on how we perceive the glass to be, half full or half empty. As I said earlier, it’s a global unforeseen situation that the world is facing right now. Therefore, more or less all the countries are going through similar situations. But all the countries may not necessarily come out of it successfully with the same set of solutions, for the simple reason that geographical, social, economic, cultural and political conditions vary in each of them.

The fifth talk was addressed by Ms. Akansha Arya Assistant Professor, Department of Management, Bansal Institute Engineering & Technology, Lucknow. Ms. Arya spoke that without doubt this is a million dollar question and to which it seems that no one has the answer. There are all assumptions and estimation’s some for better and some for worse. We will be most likely to define the new rules of the game on the basis of safety and hygiene measures, as well as the proximity and accessibility to medical facilities.

The sixth speaker of the Webinar was Ms. Soni Singh, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce, Guru Nanak Girls Degree College, Lucknow. According to Ms. Soni educational institutions must have ability to consolidate their trust with their students and parents. It is duty of schools and colleges to learn how to use their channel to spread right message correctly to conquer the trust of students and parents for tomorrow.

The last speaker of the day was Mr. Shivendra Pratap Singh, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce, LPCPS. As per Mr. Shivendra point of view that the impact of COVID- 19 on the economy is difficult to quantify. This is the first time such a global lockdown has occurred since economists have been making models to forecast growth. Most models are built utilising past behaviour of the economy, but the present situation is completely unprecedented.

According to him there are Three Big Unknowns -The future of Covid-19 in India and its impact on the economy and government revenues is unknown, so it's better not to exhaust all options by May.

Webinar ended with the vote of thanks delivered by Ms. Saloni Agarwal.

“It can be rightly said that today’s generation lives on the internet and we users are almost ignorant as to how those random bits of ones and zeros rich securely to a computer.”

The Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized two day online workshop on ‘Ethical Hacking and Hardware and Network’ in collaboration with JetKing on 5th and 6th June, 2020, to create awareness, inculcate knowledge and educate the students along with BCA faculty of Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies.

DAY - 1

Dr. L.S. Awasthi, Dean, LPCPS welcomed the guest & started the session with the quote “that everyone wants to perform secured transaction & have a safeguard for data available on cloud. As data is available on cloud it is vulnerable to attack by hacker”. He emphasises on the fact that why we need to distinguish between hacker and ethical hacker. The word hacker is itself having a negative impression or perception, when we talk about hacker people imagine a person hitting with a hood on a laptop and hacking someone’s account or stealing someone’s personal details. But that might not be right in all contexts. Ethical hacker and hacker are two words that are contradictory. Hackers are generally categorized by type of metaphorical “hat” they don’t: “white hat”, “grey hat”, and “black hat”.

Black hat hackers use its knowledge for personal or financial gain and can also be involved in cybercrime. White hat hackers also known as “ethical hackers” use their potentials to strengthen & resolve the security issues. Grey hat hackers are a blend of both black hat and white hat activities. Often, grey hat hackers will look for vulnerabilities in a system without the owner’s permission or knowledge.

Mr. Vinod Shankar Tripathi, Director of SKB EDUTECH PVT. LTD. a Jetking representative was the resource person. He started day 1 session by giving detailed information on the following points:

1. Basic components of computer.
2. Role of each component (Hardware devices only)
3. How to assemble different hardware units into a single unit.
4. How to troubleshoot various types of faults that occurs in daily life while using system
5. What are basic network commands?

DAY - 2

The second day of the workshop was on 'Ethical Hacking'. Mr. Vinod Shankar Tripathi, started the day with a notion we are living in a Digital Era, whether it be a booking a Hotel room, ordering some dinner, or even booking a cab. We are constantly using the internet and inherently constantly generating data. This data is generally stored on the cloud which is basically a huge data server or data centre that you can access online. Also we use array of devices to access this data. Now for a hacker it's a golden age with so many access points, public IP address and constant traffic and tons of data to exploit. Black hat hackers are having one hell of a time exploiting vulnerabilities and creating malicious software for the same. Above that cyber-attacks are evolving by the day hackers and are becoming smarter and more creative with their malwares and how they bypass virus scans and firewalls still baffled many people. During the day

2 session following points were discussed:

1. What is ethical hacking?
2. Why is ethical hacking legal?
3. Who are ethical hackers?
4. Phishing
5. Email spoofing
6. Distinguish between phishing and spoofing
7. How to prevent PHISHING/SPOOFING
8. Concept of network sniffing?
9. What are the tools used for ethical hacking
10. What's a denial of service (DOS) attack and what are the common forms
11. MAC Address Spoofing

“Given the current economic challenges facing many countries across the globe, the notion of engendering greater entrepreneurial activity has become a prominent goal for many national governments.” The relevance of entrepreneurship to economic development has been highlighted by many researchers and it is now well-recognised that education and training opportunities play a key role in cultivating future entrepreneurs and in developing the abilities of existing entrepreneurs to grow their business to greater levels of success.

The Webinar was inaugurated by Ms. Saloni Agarwal, Assistant Professor, LPCPS. She gave brief introduction about the topic where risks of starting a new business are high, as illustrated by the high failure rates for new ventures. However, as is always the case, the rewards, both financial and personal, are commensurate with the risk.

In light of above Lucknow Public College of Professional Management organised a webinar for the Faculty members & students of LPCPS on the topic "Entrepreneurship Skill" on 20th June from 12pm onwards. The Key note speaker was Dr. Mohammad Shariq, Faculty Marketing, ICFAI Business School.

Dr. Mohammad Shariq mentioned that the entrepreneurship concept is a major subject of study both for the local, state, as well as centralized levels. In the last decade, it has become more known that entrepreneurship is a key driver behind economic growth. For that, the government has created ways to encourage entrepreneurship, including entrepreneurs financing, and suitable governance and legal protections for contracts.

Purpose of the webinar was to:

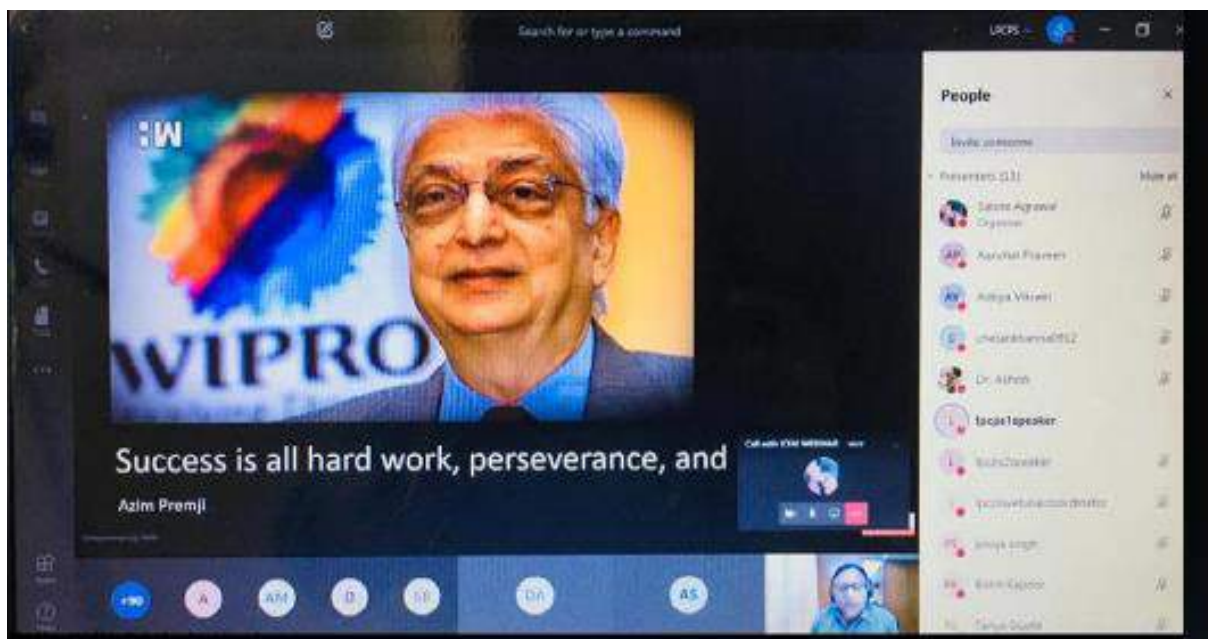

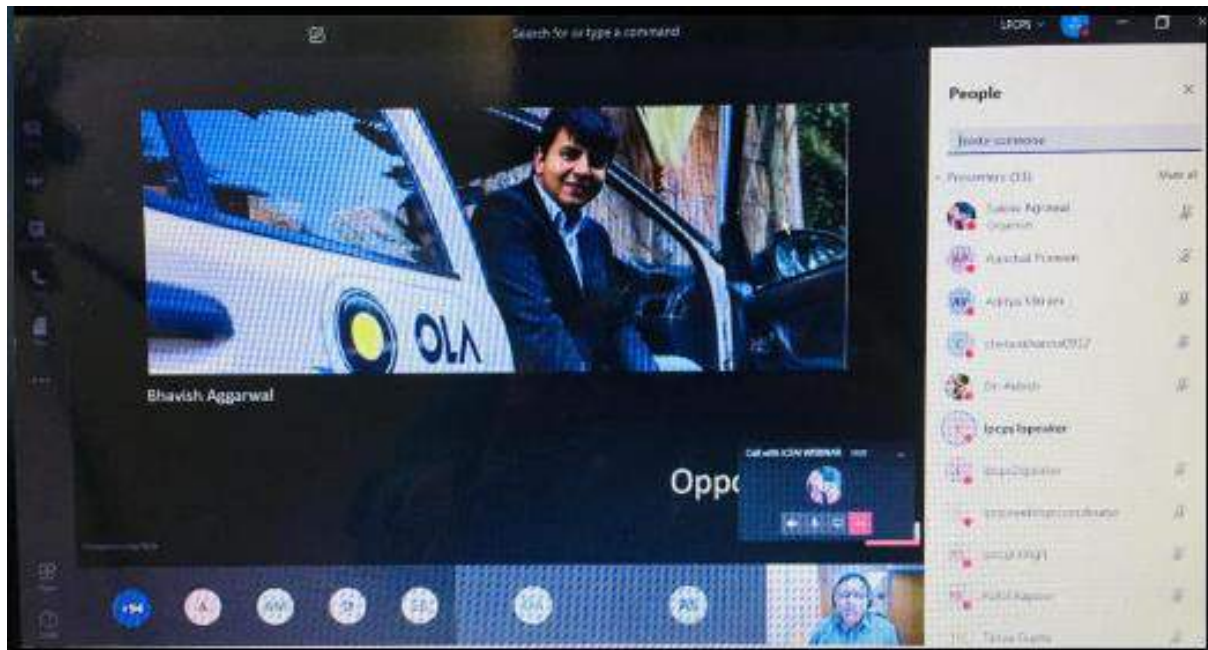

- Help participants understand the process, challenges, risks and rewards of starting up a new scalable venture
- Equip them with the tools required to start their own business
- Improve their chances of successfully starting their own business

Webinar ended with the vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Ashish Kaushal.

Many professors believe that good subject knowledge will guarantee professional success in teaching. However, knowledge of highly sophisticated professional skills, concepts and theories will be useless if the faculty do not know how to deliver the content in the online classroom by using innovative teaching practices as well as adopting new ways of engaging students in the classroom. It's no secret that static classroom and online courses belong to the past. With augmented and virtual reality, interactive presentations, and a plethora of advanced technologies, today's learners expect more than just text and videos.

Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies, LPCPS successfully conducted the One Day Online Faculty Development Program on “How to Conduct Interactive Online Sessions in Present Scenario” on July 4, 2020 (Saturday). “TODAY AND EVERY DAY, LET’S CELEBRATE THE WORK WE DO, STAND UP FOR WOMEN’S RIGHTS, AND KEEP P EQUALITY”.

We live in a world that is obsessed with labeling and differentiating between people. From the clothes you wear, the beliefs you hold, the languages you speak, the colour of your skin, or even your choice to love, someone is always trying to define your identity for you.

Yet, amid this clutter of broken identities, there exists an inclusive community of individuals who bravely fight to establish a genuinely equal and empowered society, for themselves and those around them.

While significant gains have been made to empower women worldwide, great challenges still remain. Keeping this in focus, Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized International Conference on “Women Empowerment & Entrepreneurship Development” on March 13, 2021, to discuss feminist futures and this is the first one day International Conference brought together the voices and insights of a diverse range of delegates from around the world by offering inspiration, motivation, and networking.

reform. Dr. Ofure O.M. Aito, talk focused on how family and the society play a crucial role in determining the course of lives as women. Also what we call as basic rights are still luxuries for millions of girls across the globe.

The conference also included a special address by Ms. Neha Singh (Director Lucknow Public Schools & Colleges) she highlighted that Gandhi

Ji said "educate a man and educate a woman and you

While education is the fundamental towards upliftment where one should question what is the status of women in India? How many of our mothers are working? We have to agree that women are born with managerial DNA along with the DNA of primary caretakers. For example, working mothers are dedicated to making sure that their home is in order. They are dedicated to make sure that family is well nourished and well educated and they manage to do all this beautifully while being employed. Their time management and their multitasking skills are impeccable. Why not raise our generation with this seed of thought and help them recognize this trail in their DNA.

Keynote address was given by Dr. Alka Singh (Associate Professor, Dr. RML Lohiya National Law University, Lucknow). Speaking at the event Dr. Alka said gender inequality starts with the skewed distribution that women face when it comes to the distribution of assets or inheritance or workplace employment or representation in socio-political institutions. Highlighting the main issue approached by lot of women led startups & they have a single complaint that they don't get challenge.

The technical sessions of the conference pointed out that in developing countries, women are over represented in the informal sector where they face lower pay, less job security and lower social protection. In these countries girls have dropped out more from school to help in households and there is a disturbing fact that violence against women & girls has intensified since the outbreak of pandemic. Understanding the role of the private sector, Ms. Elena Stoiakina, said business can promote gender equity by ensuring equal pay for equal work. Even where governmental regulations do not mandate it, firms can take the initiative to put in place work-life policies that support women's labour

The conference also included a Presidential Address by A.K. Sen Gupta (Ex. Prof.- Vice Chancellor, University of Lucknow, Mentor LPCPS). Prof. Sen Gupta reiterated enormous changes have taken place over the past 10 years in the world in which we live. But there is the need to look at women's issues in a holistic and developmental concerns. It will not be possible to attain sustainable development without cementing the partnership of women and men in all aspects of life.

At the end of the day vote of thanks was given by Ms. Garima Singh (Director, LPCPS) quoting Swami Vivekananda there is no chance for the welfare of the world unless the condition of women is improved.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Poverty is much more than statistics and economics, hunger and homelessness. Poverty is a state of life affecting all of humanity. Historically, poverty has proven to be the cause of violence and conflict and it continues to be so even today. Poverty can be controversial subject in modern society, as individuals have different understandings of what it means to be poor and what are appropriate solutions. Poverty has close connectivity with physical health as the world's poorest countries consistently reflect lowest life expectancies. On deep level, poverty is the state of not having access to opportunities to improve our situation and take control of our future. Globally, more than 783 million people are living in extreme poverty, meaning they are unable to meet their basic needs. This means individuals and families must go without adequate food, shelter and clean water.
