7.1.11 Institution celebrates/organizes National/International commemorative days, event and festivals

The college organizes National/International commemorative days, events and festivals with enthusiasm. The College strongly believes that unless the present generation of youth are sensitized about the significance of the festivals of our secular country and the sacrifices which great men and women of this country have made for uplifting their countrymen, the students are not able to understand their responsibility to the nation. Our students are on a mission towards better India by breaking the boundaries of religion and caste. Thoughts of great Indian personalities are sowed into the young minds through the exhibitions and programs conducted on these days. The unity in which India has its diversity that serves as the melting pot of cultures, religion, and ethnicity and develops qualities of tolerance and understanding amongst students. The college practices pluralist approach towards all religions functions and encourages the students and faculty to showcase the same. Every year our institution organizes the National/International commemorative days, events and festival. Staff and students get to know the importance of national integrity in the country in general and their role in it in particular.

Following activities are organized by staff and students of the college by initiating many of the below mentioned events: conducting lectures, meetings, and exhibitions, conducting awareness, distributing published materials, conduct outreach programs and support the needy commemorating the leaders by establishing prizes and awards.

- 1. 12th January - National Youth Day – (Swami Vivekananda Birth Anniversary): He was the inspiration of youth and hence his birth anniversary is also celebrated as National Youth Day in the country. Swami Vivekananda gave an important contribution in giving a modern and inspiring interpretation of Hinduism and spirituality. He was born in 1863 in Kolkata.
- 2. 26th January Republic Day: Republic Day is celebrated on January 26 to commemorate the adoption of constitution. On this day, various formal events including flag-hoisting and march-past are organized and which are followed by “constitution awareness program” in which students and staff members get information of their duties towards our nation and rights given to them by our constitution. By organizing such type of events, the college does its share to arouse patriotism and awareness in next generation.
- 3. 28th February - National Science Day – (Sir C V Raman): National Science Day is celebrated in India with the objectives of commemorating the first Nobel prize in India on Science which was achieved by the discovery of Raman Effect by Sir C V Raman. It is also celebrated to emphasize on the culture of science and the application of science for the welfare of people. As a part of the National Science Day celebration, IIT Kanpur organizes thematic workshops on different subjects every year.

4. 8th March-International Women's day: International Women's Day is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call to action for accelerating gender parity. Significant activity is witnessed worldwide as groups come together to celebrate women's achievements or rally for women's equality. LPCPS celebrates this day with zeal and gusto.
5. 14th April - Ambedkar Jayanti: Ambedkar Jayanti or Bhim Jayanti is an annual festival observed on 14th April to commemorate the memory of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, Indian polymath, the father of the Constitution of India and civil rights activist. It marks Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's birthday, who was born on 14 April 1891. Since 2015 it has been observed as an official public holiday throughout India. Ambedkar Jayanti is celebrated not just in India rather all around the world. Basic objective of this program is to percolate and develop the Philosophy and Principles of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar through his thought.
6. 21st June - International Day of Yoga: This day is being celebrated throughout the world annually since June 2015 with an objective to bring about awareness about the health benefits of yoga and its several practices. The aim of this day is to educate people about the physical, mental and spiritual benefits that can be derived by practicing yoga. As LPCPS special yoga sessions are organized to spread awareness.
7. 15th August-Independence Day: It is a grand event marked with the flag hosting by the Chief Guest and well-practiced march-past by many teams of Security Personnel. Cultural activities related to independence movement are exhibited.
8. 5th September -Dr. Sarvepalli RadhaKrishnan Birth Anniversary: On 5th September, we celebrate Dr. Radhakrishnan's birthday as Teacher's Day with great fervor. The students organize a programme for the teachers and the Guru-Shishya parampara is celebrated.
9. 2nd October- Gandhi and Shastri Birth Anniversary - A standout amongst the most mainstream events in India and one of the three national occasions, Gandhi Jayanti is praised in our college on 2nd October to stamp the birth commemoration of Mahatma Gandhi. Gandhi Ji is known as the Father of our Nation, Bapu or basically Mahatma. The day is announced as a national occasion and all institutions and workplaces celebrates in many ways. The standards of truth, peacefulness and trustworthiness are recalled and generally plugged among the students of the institution.

Lal Bahadur Shastri Jayanti is also celebrated on October 2. It marks the birth anniversary of Lal Bahadur Shastri who served as the second Prime Minister of India. Lal Bahadur Shastri was an important figure during the freedom struggle and rose to prominence after independence. He led the country during the Indo-Pakistan War of 1965 and his slogan "Jai Jawan, Jai Kisan" became very popular during the war. He died on January 11, 1966. He was posthumously awarded the Bharat Ratna.

10. 31st October Rashtriya Ekata Divas (Birth Anniversary of Sardar

Patel) - In 2014, the Government of India introduced Rashtriya Ekta Diwas or National Unity Day with an aim to pay tribute to Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel on his birth anniversary this day is celebrated as National Unity Day. The day commemorates the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. He played an important role in uniting India.

11. 11th November - National Education Day – (Maulana Abul Kalam

Azad Birth Anniversary): National Education Day is an annual observance in India to commemorate the birth anniversary of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, the first education minister of independent India, who served from 15 August 1947 to 2 February 1958. National Education Day of India is celebrated on 11 November every year. The National Education Day is celebrated in schools annually by spreading awareness about the importance of education. This is done by conducting interesting seminars, activities, working on projects, writing essays and more.

12. 19th November- Rani Lakshmi Bai Jayanti: The Queen of Jhansi, Rani Lakshmi Bai, was famously known as Rani of Jhansi. Rani Lakshmi Bai was one of the leading figures of the Rebellion of 1857 which began on May 10, 1857. For the entire nation, she became an icon for the freedom struggle against the British Raj for India. November 19, the birth anniversary of Rani Lakshmi Bai, is celebrated as Martyr's Day in Jhansi to honour the lives lost in the Rebellion of 1857.

13. 26th November – National Constitution Day- (Dr. B. R.

Ambedkar): Constitution Day (Samvidhāna Divasa), also known as "National Law Day", is celebrated in India on 26 November every year to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India. On 26 November 1949, the Constituent Assembly of India adopted the Constitution of India, and it came into effect on 26 January 1950. The Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment on 19th November 2015 notified the decision of Government of India to celebrate the 26th day of November every year as 'Constitution Day' to promote Constitution values among citizens.

14. 1st December-International AIDS Day:

World AIDS Day takes place on 1 December each year. It's an opportunity for people worldwide to unite in the fight against HIV, to show support for people living with HIV, and to commemorate those who have died from an AIDS-related illness. Founded in 1988, World AIDS Day was the first ever global health day.

GANDHI JAYANTI

2nd OCTOBER 2018

Gandhi Jayanti is celebrated on 2nd October every year to mark the birth anniversary of Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi, who was famously known as Mahatma Gandhi. Father of the Nation, as he was called, led India's freedom movement along with many other national leaders against the British rule in India. His method of non-violence inspired many civil rights movements across the world. To celebrate his contribution to the nation, 2nd October is celebrated every year as a national holiday.

While the nation celebrates the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, it will be the 116th birth anniversary of another stalwart of freedom struggle who shares his birthday with the Mahatma. We are talking about Lal Bahadur Shastri who was the second person to hold the office of Prime Minister of India and the third Prime Minister. Humble, soft-spoken but resolute, Lal Bahadur Shastri was an important figure during the freedom struggle and rose to prominence after Independence.

LPCPS wishes a very Happy Gandhi Jayanti to everyone!

REPUBLIC DAY

26th JANUARY 2020

The Constitution of India, which was adopted by the Constituent Assembly on November 26, 1949, came into effect on January 26, 1950. This completed India's movement towards becoming an independent republic with a democratic government system. January 26 was also selected as the day to mark Republic Day because it had been on this day that the Indian National Congress (INC) proclaimed the Declaration of Indian Independence in 1929. This was opposite to the 'dominion' status offered by the British.

LPCPS celebrated 70th Republic Day on 26th January, 2020. Faculties, staff and students got sweets and flag hosting performed by Dean Academics Dr. LS Awasthi.

NATIONAL YOUTH DAY

12th JANUARY 2022

In honor and to commemorate the revolutionary ideas of the greatest philosopher whose endeavor was to put humanity at its best use, Swami Vivekananda's birthday, January 12, is celebrated as the National Youth Day.

Swami was also known as the 'National Saint of India', because of his continuous and rigorous efforts to boost youth's potential. His motive was to channel the energy and potential of the youth into concrete ideas.

Youths!

It's you who is filled with tremendous energy and towering ambitions.

It's you who needs to recognise your infinite potential and rejuvenate your cognitive flexibility.

It's you whose revolutionary thoughts spring to mind and shape the world we live in.

It's about your enthusiasm to learn, act and achieve.

It's about you taking risks in your life and not giving up.

It's about you believing in your abilities.

It's about your energy, your thoughts and your karma that will define tomorrow.

Today's Youth is defined by YOU and all you need is wind beneath your wings to fly.

Cheers to the heroes of tomorrow, to the young minds that will define the future.

Wishing you all a very happy National Youth Day.

INTERNATIONAL MOTHER LANGUAGE DAY

21st FEBRUARY 2022

Multilingual and multicultural societies exist through their languages which transmit and preserve traditional knowledge and cultures in a sustainable way. International Mother Language Day (अन्तर्राष्ट्रीय मातृभाषा दिवस) is observed every year to promote linguistic and cultural diversity and multilingualism.

On November 17, 1999, UNESCO proclaimed February 21 to be International Mother Language Day and it was first observed on February 21, 2000

LPCPS organized an Essay Writing Competition on this day in the Library of the college in which students of different departments participated with full zeal.

Following were the topics to choose from:

- 1.हिंदी भाषा और बाजारवाद
- 2.वर्तमान परिप्रेक्ष्य में हिंदी की दशा और दिशा
- 3.भौगोलिक दृष्टि से हिंदी भाषा की प्रासंगिकता
- 4.हिंदी राजभाषा क्यों?

Word Limit: 500 words

Date: 21st February 2022

Time: 10:00 AM - 10:45 AM

Venue: Swami Vivekanand Library, Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies

To participate students filled the following form (Only the first 50 candidates were allowed) <https://forms.gle/fJmF3Mbc72crsDBs7>

Result of Essay Writing Contest held on 21st February, 2022 to celebrate International Mother Language day was:-

WORLD WATER DAY

22nd MARCH 2022

Groundwater is invisible, but its impact is visible everywhere. Out of sight, under our feet, groundwater is a hidden treasure that enriches our lives. Almost all of the liquid freshwater in the world is groundwater. As climate change gets worse, groundwater will become more and more critical. We need to work together to sustainably manage this precious resource and LPCPS is also trying hard to contribute its part by creating awareness as much as possible.

LPCPS organized slogan writing competition on the occasion of World Water Day in the library of the college in which students of different departments participated with full zeal.

Ambedkar Jayanti is celebrated to commemorate the memory of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar, an Indian jurist, politician, philosopher, anthropologist, historian and economist who was the principal architect of the constitution of India.

He was also recognized as the first law and justice minister of independent India. Being a renowned social reformer and civil rights activist, he spoke unequivocally against inequality, injustice and discrimination and also advocated for the rights of the women and labours.

Living by what he has made for us, living him in laws we live by. Here's remembering Dr. Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar by LPCPS.

EASTER

17th APRIL 2022

Easter is the Christian holiday celebrating the Resurrection, or bringing back to life, of Jesus Christ three days after his crucifixion. In Christian tradition, the Resurrection represents Christ’s victory over death and the promise of eternal life for those who follow him. Some Christians refer to Easter as Resurrection Day or Resurrection Sunday. Easter always falls on a Sunday. Many churches will offer worship services on Good Friday (the Friday just before Easter) along with one or more services on Easter Sunday. LPCPS wishes Happy Easter to everyone!

INTERNATIONAL YOGA DAY

21st JUNE 2022

"Paths are many, Truth is ONE!"

Yoga is a mind-body system that has been practiced for thousands of years. One word sums up the numerous advantages that this discipline can provide: freedom. Yoga teaches us to be free of psychological and physical limitations, as well as a negative self-image. Yoga is a discipline that helps in aligning your body, mind, and soul.

LPCPS organized a Yoga session in the college ground on 21st June 2022 i.e. on the day of- 'International Yoga Day' together, let's remind each other to dedicate more time everyday, to the most holistic approach of wellness of our mind and body.
