

2.3.1 Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

Sample files for Expeditions and Drives

We organise various trips or expeditions to good places to provide our students with a better experience of the world in a real sense. We believe that better the interaction of students with the society will help them to pursue better careers in future. It help them to connect with the culture and tradition. We also organise various drives to make our students aware of social issues and problems.

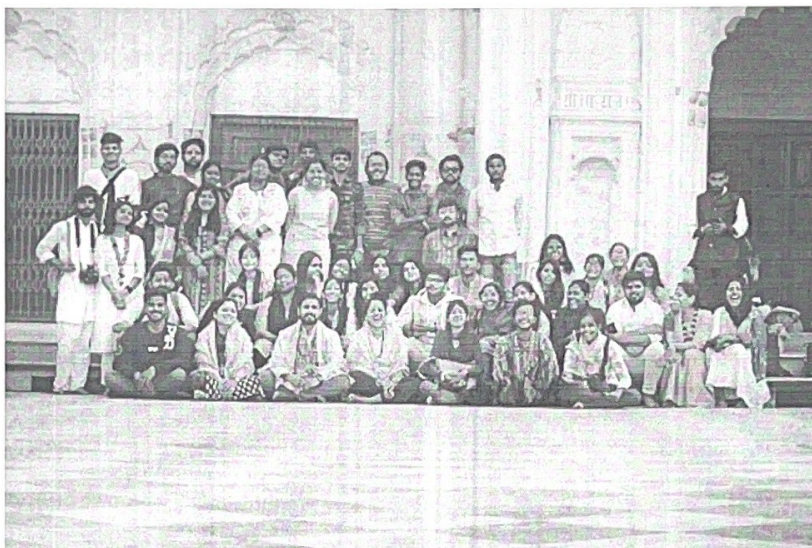

Significance:

1. Gain life skills : Students will gain life skills that will be important building blocks for their future during the fundraising process and the actual expedition, including financial management, teamwork, resilience, leadership, and cultural sensitivity.
2. Students' distinct experience will set apart from the competition and provide ample material for discussion during the job interview. According to research, 82% of employers are more likely to select applicants who have volunteered. Interviewers will be impressed by their maturity, drive, and practical experience.
3. An expedition journey is also a journey of self-development.

Trip to Ayodhya

Dated: 16/Feb/2023

Trip to Ayodhya

Venue: Ayodhya

Brief about the report:

On 16 February 2023, the Lucknow Public College of Professional studies organised a trip to Ayodhya for the students of the LPCPS. The purpose of the trip was to provide students with an opportunity to learn about the historical and cultural significance of Ayodhya. The trip was not only informative but also fun-filled, and the students thoroughly enjoyed the experience.

The trip started early in the morning, and the students were excited as they boarded the bus. The journey to Ayodhya was pleasant, and the students enjoyed the scenic beauty of the countryside. As we approached Ayodhya, we could see the famous Saryu River, which added to the beauty of the place.

Visit to the Ram Janmabhoomi Temple:

The first stop on the trip was the Ram Janmabhoomi Temple. The temple is situated at the site where Lord Ram is believed to have been born. The students were fascinated by the architecture of the temple and the intricate carvings on the walls. The temple was full of devotees, and the students got a glimpse of the religious fervor of the people.

Visit to the Hanuman Garhi Temple:

The next stop on the trip was the Hanuman Garhi Temple. The temple is dedicated to Lord Hanuman and is situated on a hilltop. The students had to climb several stairs to reach the temple, but the effort was worth it as the view from the top was breathtaking. The students were in awe of the statue of Lord Hanuman and the peaceful atmosphere of the temple.

Cleanliness Drive:

Dated: 12/Mar/2023

Cleaning surrounding area of 'Ram Manohar Lohia Park'

Venue: Ram Manohar Lohia Park

Brief about the activity:

On March 12, 2023, a group of students from the Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies (LPCPS) undertook a community service project in Ram Manohar Lohia Park under the supervision of NSS program coordinator. The activity involved the clearing of the road and surrounding areas of the park.

The community service activity started at 9 am, with students arriving at the park with gloves, garbage bags, and brooms. The students were divided into groups and assigned specific areas to clean. The road and surrounding areas were divided into several sections, and each group was responsible for cleaning their assigned section. The students worked tirelessly for several 3 hours, picking up garbage, sweeping the road, and collecting litter.

During the activity the students learned how to clean the road and surrounding areas of the park. The activity also helped to raise awareness among the students about the importance of keeping public places clean and the impact of littering on the environment.
