INDEPENDENCE DAY

Date: 15TH AUG, 2023

Independence Day is celebrated annually on 15 August as a public holiday in India commemorating the nation's independence from the United Kingdom on 15 August 1947, the day when the provisions of the Indian Independence Act, which transferred legislative sovereignty to the Indian Constituent Assembly, came into effect. India retained King George VI as head of state until its transition to a republic, when the Constitution of India came into effect on 26 January 1950 (celebrated as Indian Republic Day).

On the occasion of Independence Day Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies hosted the national flag and showed our patriotism. All the faculty, staff and students participated in this event.

NATIONAL SPORTS DAY

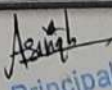

Date: 29th AUG, 2023

Every year National Sports Day is celebrated on August 29th in India to honour the birth anniversary of the legendary Indian hockey player, Major Dhyan Chand.

Major Dhyan Chand's remarkable contributions to Indian sports and his extraordinary skills in the field of hockey have left an indelible mark on the nation's sporting history.

He was so phenomenal that he earned the nickname "The Wizard" for his incredible ball control, precision, and goal-scoring abilities. His exceptional performances during the 1928, 1932, and 1936 Olympics led India to three consecutive gold medals in hockey, making him a national hero and an inspiration to countless athletes

RAKSHABANDHAN

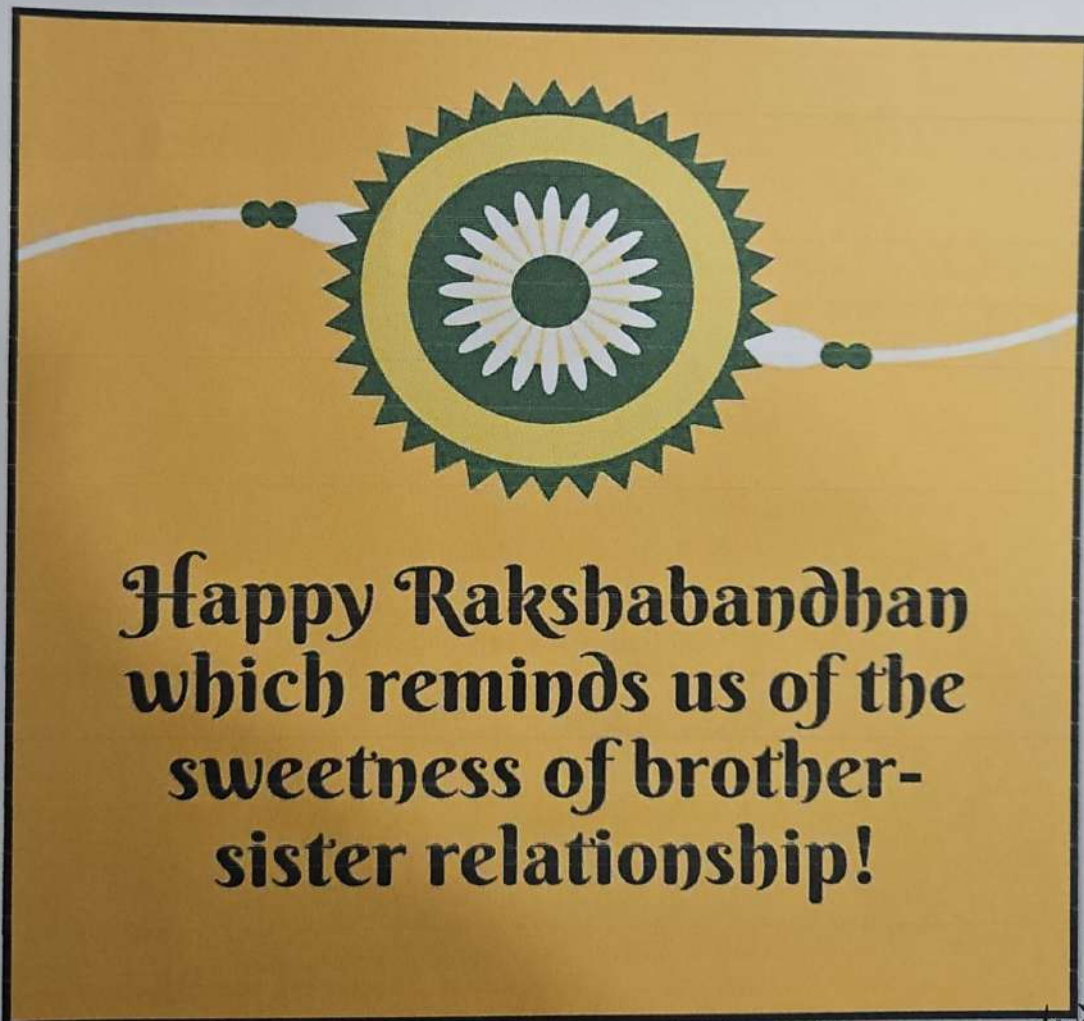

Date: 30th AUG, 2023

Raksha Bandhan is a popular and traditionally Hindu annual rite or ceremony that is central to a festival of the same name celebrated in South Asia. It is also celebrated in other parts of the world significantly influenced by Hindu culture. On this day, sisters of all ages tie a talisman or amulet called the rakhi around the wrists of their brothers.

Raksha Bandhan is observed on the last day of the Hindu lunar calendar month of Shraavana, which typically falls in August. The expression "Raksha Bandhan" (Sanskrit, literally "the bond of protection, obligation, or care") is now principally applied to this ritual.

On the occasion of Raksha Bandhan, Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies is organizing a "SELFIE WITH RAKHI DRIVE" in which students of different departments participated with full zeal. Around 76 students participated from different courses.

JANMASHTAMI

Date: 7th SEP, 2023

Krishna Janmashtami (Sanskrit: कृष्णजन्माष्टमी, romanized: Kṛṣṇajanmāṣṭamī), also known simply as Krishnashtami, Janmashtami, or Gokulashtami, is an annual Hindu festival that celebrates the birth of Krishna, the eighth avatar of Vishnu. In certain Hindu texts, such as the Gita Govinda, Krishna has been identified as supreme God and the source of all avatars.

It is an important festival, particularly in the Vaishnavism tradition of Hinduism.[6] The celebratory customs associated with Janmashtami include a celebration festival, reading and recitation of religious texts, dance and enactments of the life of Krishna according to the Bhagavata Purana.

On the occasion of JANMASHTAMI, Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a poster making activity in which students of different departments participated with full zeal. Around 76 students participated from different courses.

HINDI DIVAS

Date: 14th SEP, 2023

Hindi Day (Hindi: हिन्दी दिवस, romanized: hindī divas) is celebrated in India to commemorate the date 14 September 1949 on which a compromise was reached—during the drafting of the Constitution of India—on the languages that were to have official status in the Republic of India. The compromise, usually called the Munshi-Ayyangar formula, after drafting committee members K. M. Munshi and N. Gopaldaswami Ayyangar, was voted by the Constituent Assembly of India after three years of debate between two opposing camps. The Hindi protagonists wanted Modern Standard Hindi register of the Hindustani language to be the sole "national language" of India.

On the occasion of Hindi Day, Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a small session for the students of LPCPS which was given by Mr. Shivendra Pratap Singh, (Department of commerce). GANESH CHATURTHI

Date: 19th SEP, 2023

The auspicious Hindu festival of Ganesh Chaturthi is celebrated annually with pomp in India. Also known as Vinayaka Chaturthi or Ganesh Utsav, the day marks the birth of Lord Ganesha and is observed for ten days by devotees. It falls annually on the Chaturthi tithi of Shukla Paksha. The last day of the 10-day celebrations is marked as Ganesh Visarjan.

On this day, devotees immerse Lord Ganesha's idols in water. While Ganesh Chaturthi is commemorated all across the country, it happens on a grand scale in Maharashtra,

As Lord Ganesha steps into his space and time, we here, at LPCPS welcome his homecoming on this auspicious day, praying for knowledge, peace and prosperity. Here's an offering him love and devotion and welcoming his aura into our beings

NANA SAHEB PESHWA-II JI DEATH ANNIVERSARY

Date: 25th SEP, 2023

Nana Saheb Peshwa II (19 May 1824 – 24 September 1859), born as Dhondu Pant, was an Indian Peshwa of the Maratha empire, aristocrat and fighter, who led the rebellion in Cawnpore (Kanpur) during the 1857 rebellion against the East India Company.

As the adopted son of the exiled Maratha Peshwa Baji Rao II, Nana Saheb believed that he was entitled to a pension from the Company, but as he was denied recognition under Lord Dalhousie's doctrine of lapse, the Peshwa started the rebellion.

On the occasion of the NANA SAHEB PESHWA-II JI DEATH ANNIVERSARY, Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a small session for the students of LPCPS which was given Ms Mohini Gupta (Department of management). All the students were very enthusiastic for this session and actively participated thought out this event.

PARYUSHAN MAHOTSAV

Date: 30th SEP, 2023

Paryushana is the most important Jain religious observance of the year. For both Shvetambaras, who observe the festival over a period of eight days, and Digambaras, for whom Paryushana Parva lasts ten days, this is a time of intensive study, reflection, and purification. It takes place in the middle of the four-month rainy season in India, a time when the monks and nuns cease moving about from place to place and stay with a community. Paryushan means, literally, "abiding" or "coming together." The monks and nuns who have to maintain fixed residence during the rainy season abide with the laity and are available to them for instruction and guidance.

On the occasion of the PARYUSHAN MAHOTSAV Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a small session for the students of LPCPS which was given Ms Sweety Jain (Department of commerce). All the students were very enthusiastic for this session and actively participated thought out this event.

GANDHI AND SHASTRI JAYANTI

Date: 30th SEP, 2023

This day is celebrated all over the country. Gandhi Ji was the practitioner of Ahinsa (Non Violence) so this day is also celebrated as the International Day of Non Violence by the United Nations. We also celebrate the birth anniversary of Lal Bahadur Shastri on 2nd Oct.

Both spent their lives in jail for raising their voice against colonial rule and injustice. Gandhi and Shastri were both epitomes of simplicity in life and patriotism. Discipline in life was also one of the several common traits of Gandhi and Shastri.

On the occasion of the GANDHI AND SHASTRI JAYANTI, Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a small session for the students of LPCPS which was given Prof (Dr) Laxmi Shankar Awasthi (Dean Academics). All the students were very enthusiastic for this session and actively participated thought out this event.

WORLD AIDS DAY

Date: 1st Dec, 2023

World AIDS Day was first designated in August 1988 by James W. Bunn and Thomas Netter, to get some semblance of control over the pandemic that had claimed the lives of so many people. Both James W Bunn and Thomas Netter were public information officers for the AIDS Global Program of the World Health Organisation.

They conveyed the idea for the observation of this day to the Director of the AIDS Global Program, Dr Johnathan Mann, who approved it for December 1. Since the 1990s, research and medical practices have made significant improvement for the care of people living with HIV.

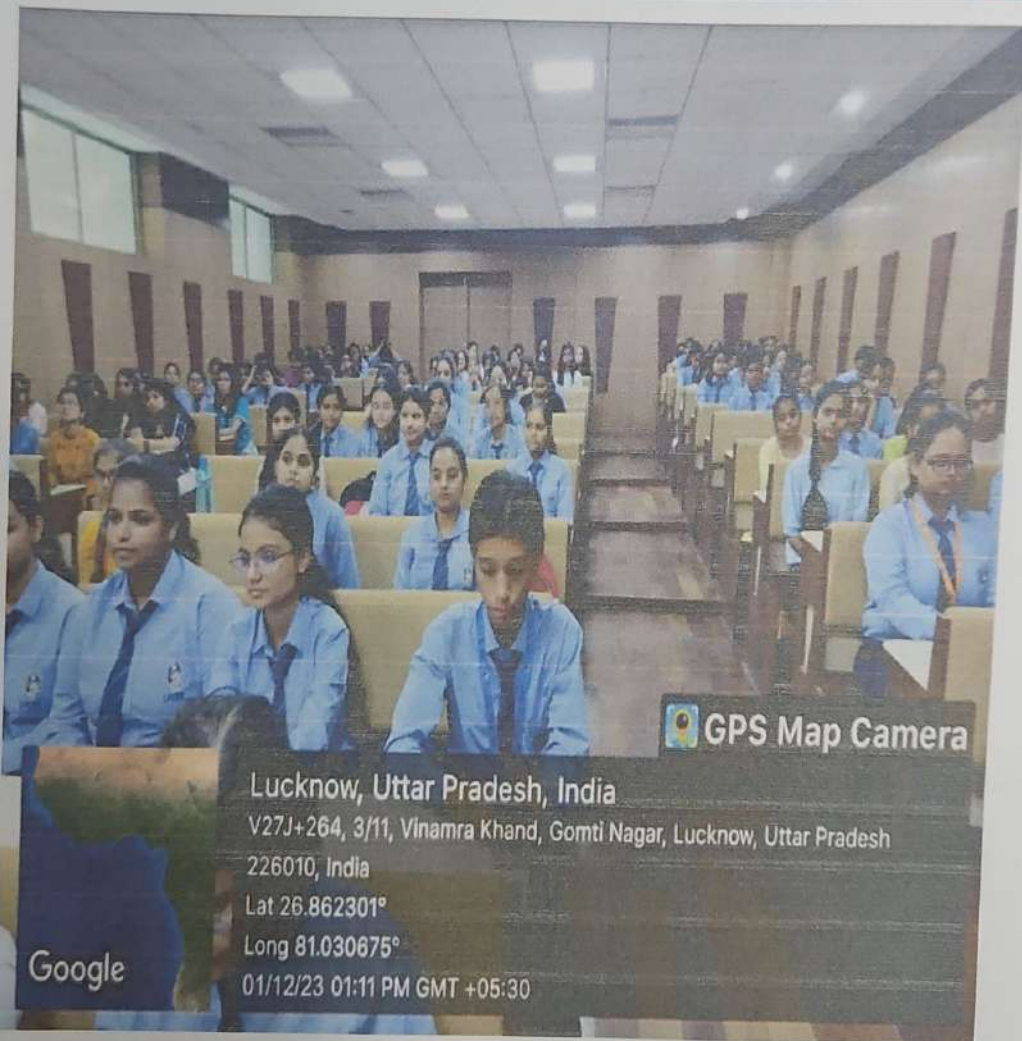

On the occasion of the World AIDS Day Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a small session for the students of LPCPS which was given by Mr Rohit Kapoor (Department of computers). All the students were very enthusiastic for this session and actively participated thought out this event.

CHRISTMAS

Date: 25th Dec, 2023

Christmas is an annual festival commemorating the birth of Jesus Christ, observed primarily on December 25 as a religious and cultural celebration among billions of people around the world.

A feast central to the liturgical year in Christianity, it follows the season of Advent (which begins four Sundays before) or the Nativity Fast, and initiates the season of Christmastide, which historically in the West lasts twelve days and culminates on Twelfth Night.

Christmas is celebrated to remember the birth of Jesus Christ, who Christians believe is the Son of God. The name 'Christmas' comes from the Mass of Christ (or Jesus).

On the occasion of the Christmas Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a game session named Secret Santa, where Faculty members of the college draw random names to become someone's Secret Santa. The Secret Santa is given a wish list of gift ideas to choose from to give to their chosen giftee. After opening their present, the giftee has to guess which member of the group was their Secret Santa. All the Faculty members were very enthusiastic for this session and actively participated thought out this event.

LOHRI

Date: 13th Jan, 2024

Lohri is a popular winter Dogra and Punjab folk festival celebrated primarily in Northern India. The significance and legends about the Lohri festival are many and these link the festival to the Duggar region and Punjab region. It is believed by many that the festival marks the passing of the winter solstice. Lohri marks the end of winter, and is a traditional welcome of longer days and the sun's journey to the Northern Hemisphere. It is observed the night before Maghi.

The festival of Lohri is celebrated with great pomp and show in Punjab and Haryana. This festival is celebrated to welcome the spring season and marks the end of winter season. This festival is celebrated to commemorate the harvest of Rabi crop.

On the occasion of the Lohri Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a small celebration with a bonfire and sang folk songs and dance around the bonfire and offer popcorn, puffed rice, popcorns, and other things in

REPUBLIC DAY

Date: 26th Jan, 2024

Republic Day is a national holiday in India commemorating the adoption of the Constitution of India, and the country's transition to a republic which came into effect on 26 January 1950.

The constitution replaced the Government of India Act 1935 as the governing document of India, thus turning the nation from a dominion into a republic post its independence from the British Raj in 1947. The constitution was adopted by the Constituent Assembly of India on 26 November 1949 and came into effect on 26 January 1950. The date was chosen as the Indian National Congress proclaimed Purna Swaraj (complete independence) on this day in 1930.

On the occasion of the Republic Day Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized Flag hosting session for the students and faculty members of LPCPS. All the students were very enthusiastic for this session and actively participated thought out this event.

MARTYRS DAY

Date: 30th Jan, 2024

Martyrs' Day is recognised nationally on 30 January to mark the assassination of Mahatma Gandhi in 1948, by Nathuram Godse.

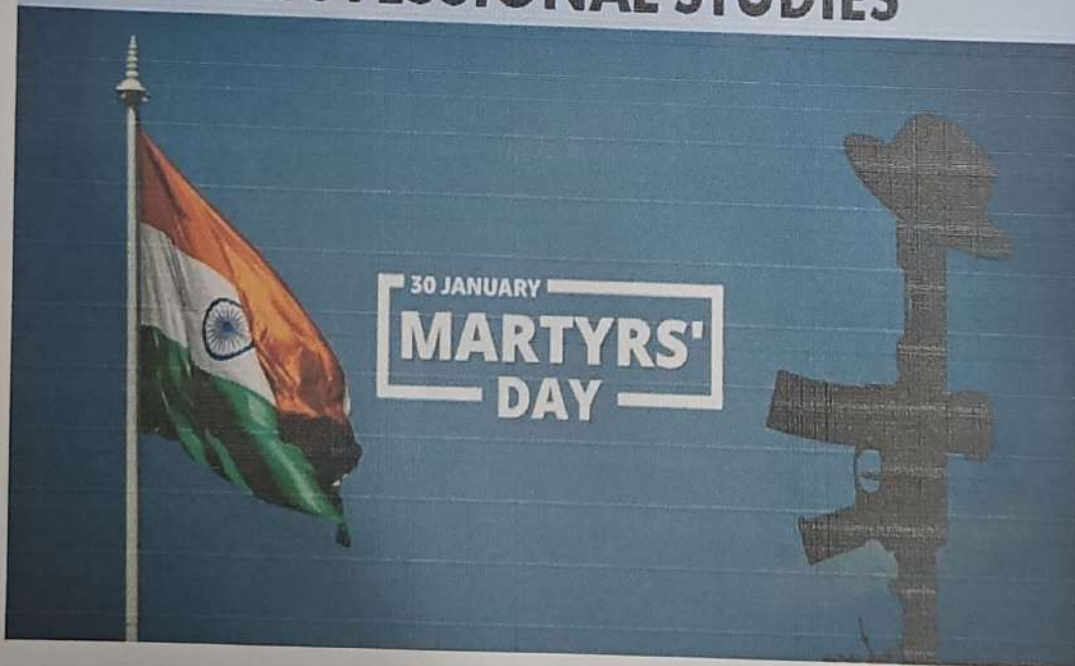

On Martyrs' Day the President, the Vice President, the Prime Minister, the Defence Minister, the Chief of Defence Staff and the three Service Chiefs gather at the samadhi at Raj Ghat memorial and lay wreaths decorated with multi-colour flowers. The armed forces' personnel blow bugles, sounding the Last Post. The inter-services contingent reverse arms as a mark of respect. A two-minute silence in memory of Indian martyrs is observed throughout the country at 11 am. Participants hold all-religion prayers and sing tributes.

On the occasion of the Martyrs' Day Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a small session for the students of LPCPS which was given Dr A.K Rai (Department of computer). All the faculty members kept two minute silence for the homage for the Mahatma Gandhi.

LABOUR DAY

Date: 1st May, 2024

Labour Day is an annual holiday to celebrate the rights of workers. Labour Day has its origins in the labour union movement, specifically the eight-hour day movement, which advocated eight hours for work, eight hours for recreation, and eight hours for rest.

For most countries, Labour Day is synonymous with, or linked with, International Workers' Day, which occurs on 1 May. For other countries, Labour Day is celebrated on a different date, often one with special significance for the labour movement in that country. Labour Day is a public holiday in many countries.

On the occasion of the Labour Day Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a small session for the students of LPCPS which was given Dr Sameer (Department of management). All the students were very enthusiastic for this session and actively participated thought out this event.

PARSHURAM JAYANTI

Date: 3rd May, 2024

Parashurama Jayanti is celebrated as birth anniversary of sixth incarnation of Lord Vishnu. It falls during Shukla Paksha Tritiya in the month of Vaishakha. It is believed that Parashurama was born during Pradosh Kala and hence the day when Tritiya prevails during Pradosh Kala is considered for Parashurama Jayanti celebrations. The purpose of the sixth incarnation of Lord Vishnu is to relieve the Earth's burden by exterminating the sinful, destructive and irreligious monarchs that pillaged its resources and neglected their duties as kings.

On the occasion of the Parashurama Jayanti Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a small session for the students of LPCPS which was given Mr Mohit Kumar Maurya (Department of commerce). INTERNATIONAL DAY OF YOGA

Date: 21 June, 2024

The International Day of Yoga has been celebrated across the world annually on June 21 since 2015, following its inception in the United Nations General Assembly in 2014. Yoga is a physical, mental and spiritual practice which originated in ancient India. The Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi, in his UN address in 2014, had suggested the date of June 21, as it is the longest day of the year in the Northern Hemisphere and shares a special significance in many parts of the world.

On the occasion of International Day of Yoga Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a yoga session for all the faculty members.
