Date: Aug 29, 2022 -September 12, 2022

Participating Country: India, Sri Lanka, Namibia, Nepal, Malawi, Botswana, Madagascar, and Yemen

Workshop Coordinator: Ujjawal Mishra

The world is filled with over 2 billion people. The beauty of our planet is that with over 2 billion people, comes diverse cultures. Every culture is beautiful and we can enrich our knowledge and understand various cultures. With this view Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies, International affairs cell organized a 15 days Ethnic Inclusiveness Workshop which was held from Aug 29, 2022 -September 12, 2022. The participating countries were India, Sri Lanka, Namibia, Nepal, Malawi, Botswana, Madagascar, and Yemen. The workshop gave an opportunity to dance lovers to show their talent and learn about each other's culture simultaneously. This program was inaugurated by Dr. L.S. Awasthi, Dean Academics. A total of 14 students have enrolled for the workshop and 12 students have successfully completed their 15 classes.

This cultural exchange program ended on September 12, 2022 the students participating in this workshop continued to bridge the gap that stands between one's perception of a culture and the culture itself by learning Indian dance forms and Oshiwambo, the traditional dance of Namibia.
