CODE OF CONDUCT

1. For the Management/ Board of Directors
2. Principal
3. Dean – Academics
4. Academic Coordinator
5. Head Of Department
6. Professional Ethics for the Teachers
7. Non- Teaching Staff
8. Students
9. For Online Classes (Students)

The college has a prescribed code of conduct for students, teachers, administrators and other staff members.

The code articulates the values the organization wishes to foster in its leaders and employees and, in doing so, defines desired behaviour. As a result, written codes of conduct or ethics become benchmarks against which the performance as an individual and college can be measured.

Additionally, this code is a central guide and reference for all its employees to support day-to-day decision making. These codes encourage discussions of ethics and compliance, empowering employees to handle ethical dilemmas they encounter in everyday work. It also serves as a valuable reference in helping employees locate relevant documents, services and other resources related to ethics within the college.

Code Of Conduct For The Management/Board Of Directors

- Always be kind and considerate to others.
- Be respectful to all the sects of society.
- Always provide equal employment opportunities to everybody regardless of the person's gender, religion, caste, creed, language, place of origin or social and cultural background.

CODE OF PROFESSIONAL ETHICS

I. TEACHERS AND THEIR RESPONSIBILITIES:

II. Whoever adopts teaching as a profession assumes the obligation to conduct himself / herself in accordance with the ideal of the profession. A teacher is constantly under the scrutiny of his students and the society at large. Therefore, every teacher should see that there is no incompatibility between his precepts and practice. The national ideals of education which have already been set forth and which he/she should seek to inculcate among students must be his/her own ideals. The profession further requires that the teachers should be calm, patient and communicative by temperament and amiable in disposition.

(i) Adhere to a responsible pattern of conduct and demeanor expected of them by the community.

(ii) Manage their private affairs in a manner consistent with the dignity of the profession.

(iii) Seek to make professional growth continuous through study and research.

(iv) Express free and frank opinion by participation at professional meetings, seminars, conferences etc. towards the contribution of knowledge.

(v) Maintain active membership of professional organizations and strive to improve education and profession through them.

(vi) Perform their duties in the form of teaching, tutorial, practical, seminar and research work conscientiously and with dedication.

(vii) Co-operate and assist in carrying out functions relating to the educational responsibilities of the college and the university such as: assisting in appraising applications for admission, advising and counseling students as well as assisting the conduct of university and college examinations, including supervision, invigilation and evaluation.

(viii) Participate in extension, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities including community service.

III. TEACHERS AND THE

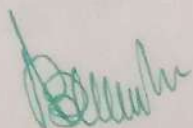

STUDENTS Teachers should:

- (i) Respect the right and dignity of the student in expressing his/her opinion;
- (ii) Deal justly and impartially with students regardless of their religion, caste, political, economic, social and physical characteristics.
- (iii) Recognize the difference in aptitude and capabilities among students and strive to meet their individual needs.
- (iv) Encourage students to improve their attainments, develop their personalities and at the same time contribute to community welfare.
- (v) Inculcate among students scientific outlook and respect for physical labour and ideals of democracy, patriotism and peace.
- (vi) Be affectionate to the students and not behave in a vindictive manner towards any of them for any reason.
- (vii) Pay attention to only the attainment of the student in the assessment of merit.
- (viii) Make themselves available to the students even beyond their class hours and help and guide students without any remuneration or reward.
- (ix) Aid students to develop an understanding of our national heritage and national goals.
- (x) Refrain from inciting students against other students, colleagues or administration.

IV. TEACHERS AND

COLLEAGUES Teachers should:

- (i) Treat other members of the profession in the same manner as they themselves wish to be treated.
- (ii) Speak respectfully of other teachers and render assistance for professional betterment.
- (iii) Refrain from lodging unsubstantiated allegations against colleagues to higher authorities.
- (iv) Refrain from allowing considerations of caste, creed, religion, race or sex in their professional endeavor.

V. TEACHERS AND AUTHORITIES:

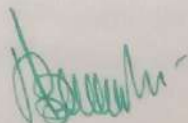

Teachers should:

- (i) Discharge their professional responsibilities according to the existing rules and adhere to procedures and methods consistent with their profession in initiating steps through their own institutional bodies and/or professional organizations for change of any such rule detrimental to the professional interest;
- (ii) Refrain from undertaking any other employment and commitment including private tuitions and coaching classes which are likely to interfere with their professional responsibilities.
- (iii) Co-operate in the formulation of policies of the institution by accepting various offices and discharge responsibilities which such offices may demand.
- (iv) Co-operate through their organizations in the formulation of policies of the other institutions and accept offices.
- (v) Co-operate with the authorities for the betterment of the institutions keeping in view the interest and in conformity with dignity of the profession.
- (vi) Should adhere to the conditions of contract.
- (vii) Give and expect due notice before a change of position is made
- (viii) Refrain from availing themselves of leave except on unavoidable grounds and as far as practicable with prior intimation, keeping in view their particular responsibility for completion of academic schedule.

VI. TEACHERS AND NON-TEACHING STAFF:

- (i) Teachers should treat the non-teaching staff as colleagues and equal partners in a cooperative undertaking, within every educational institution
- (ii) Teachers should help in the function of joint staff-councils covering both teachers and the non-teaching staff.
