

7.1.9. Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

WORLD YOUTH DAY (12 JANUARY, 2024)

National Youth Day is celebrated every year on the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda. He played a key role in introducing Indian philosophies of Vedanta and Yoga to the Western world. His teachings emphasized the importance of tolerance, selfless service, and the unity of all religions. At LPCPS, the session was headed by Mr. Shivendra Pratap Singh where he threw light on Swami Vivekananda's contributions in inspiring people globally, promoting the ideals of harmony, knowledge, and spiritual growth..

Shivendra Pratap Singh
Principal
Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies
Vinamra Khand, Gomtinagar, Lucknow

GANESH CHATURTHI (19 SEPTEMBER, 2023)

LPCPS celebrates Ganesh Chaturthi students and faculty members of LPCPS celebrated the Ganesh Chaturthi with great enthusiasm and devotion. Lord Ganesha is a Hindu God of wisdom, prosperity, and good fortune.

The celebration began with placing a beautiful idol of Lord Ganesha. Students and the faculty members offered prayers and modaks to the Lord, seeking his blessings for a successful academic year.

Aringh

Principal

Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies
Vinamra Khand, Gominagar, Lucknow

PARYUSHAN MAHOTSAV (12-20 SEPTEMBER, 2023)

Paryushan 2023, a significant festival for the Jain community, was celebrated from September 12 to September 20, 2023. It is a time for spiritual growth, with fasting, meditation, and purification rituals. Devotees attend speeches, practice non-violence, and seek forgiveness for their sins. The significance of the festival was explained by Ms. Sweety Jain in a session held on 30 September, 2023.

Ashwini

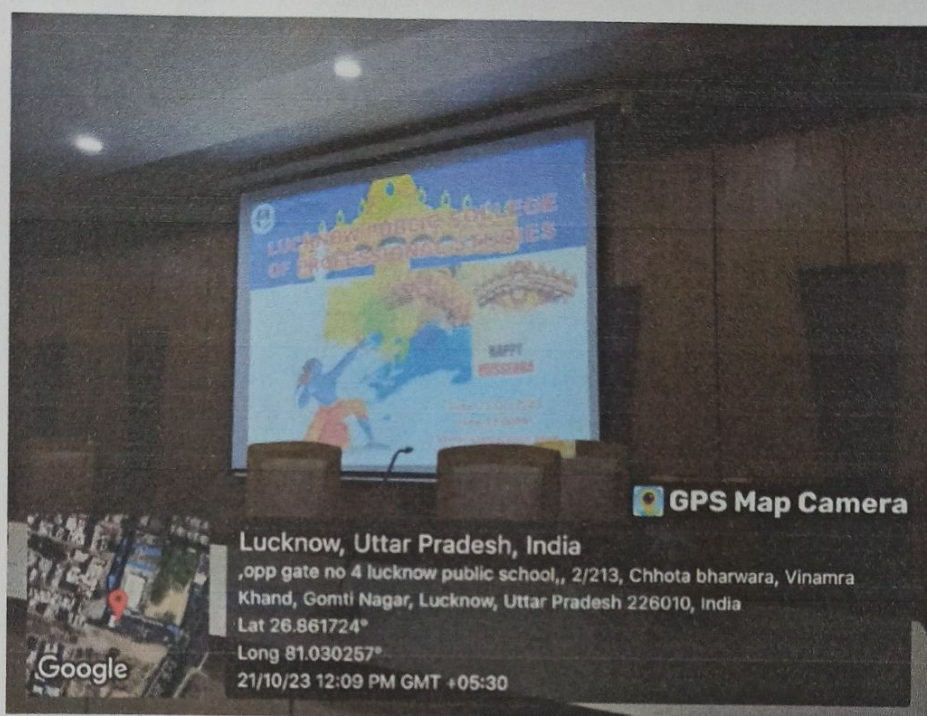

Principal

Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies
Vinamra Khand, Gominagar, Lucknow

DUSSEHRA (24 OCTOBER, 2023)

Dussehra or Vijayadashami is an important Hindu festival which signifies Lord Rama's victory over Ravana that is the victory of good over evil. This annual festival is celebrated with great enthusiasm and fervour by Hindus across the globe.

Dr. Anand Kumar Rai highlighted on the significance of the festival that is the end of negativity and evil within us (biases, prejudices, stereotypes) and marks a fresh new beginning.

Anand

Principal

Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies
Vinamra Khand, Gominagar, Lucknow

CHRISTMAS (25 DECEMBER, 2023)

LPCPS celebrated Christmas at the campus with unparalleled zeal and love, making the bells ring and calling happiness all the way home - here's to celebrating the eve, here's to Christmas!

At LPCPS, we conducted a fun event called Secret Santa on 23rd December where everyone picked a chit of someone's name and gifted them something without disclosing their identity.

Anish
Principal
Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies
Vinamra Khand, Gominagar, Lucknow

LOHRI (13 JANUARY, 2024)

The family of Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies celebrated the joyous festival of Lohri filled with the warmth of the bonfire. Everyone participated with great joy and enthusiasm filling the atmosphere with sweetness and happiness.

Amit
Principal

Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies
Vinamra Khand, Gominagar, Lucknow

HOLI (24 MARCH, 2024)

The Indian festival Holi, popularly known as the festival of colours, is celebrated grandly every year. People across the country celebrate the festival of colours with great enthusiasm each year. This festival is commemorated for two consecutive days, Choti Holi and another day is Dulhendi which is also known as Badi Holi or Rang Wali Holi.

Asingh

Principal

Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies
Vinamra Khand, Gomtinagar, Lucknow