Trip to Ayodhya

Date of Activity: 16/02/2023

Venue: Ayodhya

Brief about the report:

On 16 February 2023, the Lucknow Public College of Professional studies organised a trip to Ayodhya for the students of the LPCPS. The purpose of the trip was to provide students with an opportunity to learn about the historical and cultural significance of Ayodhya. The trip was not only informative but also fun-filled, and the students thoroughly enjoyed the experience.

The trip started early in the morning, and the students were excited as they boarded the bus. The journey to Ayodhya was pleasant, and the students enjoyed the scenic beauty of the countryside. As we approached Ayodhya, we could see the famous Saryu River, which added to the beauty of the place.

Visit to the Ram Janmabhoomi Temple:

The first stop on the trip was the Ram Janmabhoomi Temple. The temple is situated at the site where Lord Ram is believed to have been born. The students were fascinated by the architecture of the temple and the intricate carvings on the walls. The temple was full of devotees, and the students got a glimpse of the religious fervor of the people.

Visit to the Hanuman Garhi Temple:

The next stop on the trip was the Hanuman Garhi Temple. The temple is dedicated to Lord Hanuman and is situated on a hilltop. The students had to climb several stairs to reach the temple, but the effort was worth it as the view from the top was breathtaking. The students were in awe of the statue of Lord Hanuman and the peaceful atmosphere of the temple.
