ADVANCED EXCEL BOOT CAMP (Phase – 3)

Date of activity: 04/04/2025

Number of Students: 99

Venue: Computer Lab, Basement

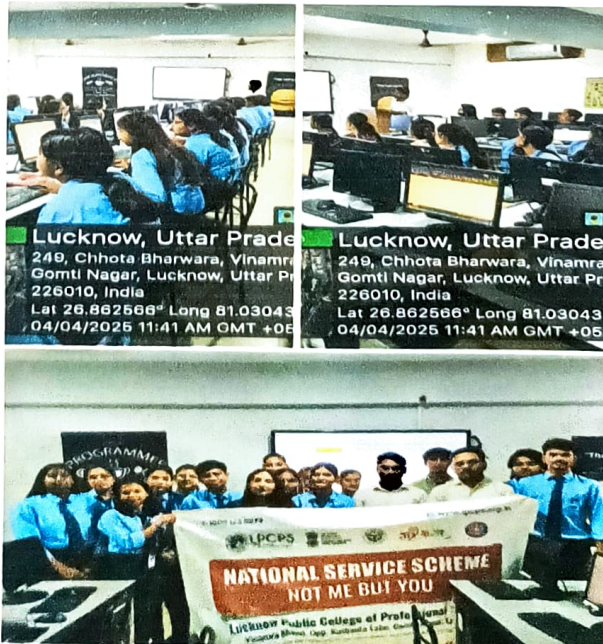

Brief about the activity:

The NSS Unit of Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies (LPCPS) successfully organized an engaging and informative session titled "Advanced Excel Boot Camp" on April 4th, 2025, exclusively for B.B.A and BJMC students. The session aimed to enhance students' practical skills and in-depth understanding of Microsoft Excel, a vital tool widely used in data management, financial analysis, and professional reporting.

Ms. Anustha Singh and Mr. Rajneesh Sharma from EMPARTA EXPRESS LEARNING served as the esteemed resource persons for the session. With their extensive industry experience, they provided valuable insights and practical demonstrations on various advanced Excel features. Key topics included pivot tables, data visualization, VLOOKUP, HLOOKUP, macros, and financial modeling techniques.

The session emphasized interactive learning, encouraging students to actively participate and apply their knowledge through hands-on exercises. The practical approach and dynamic presentation style were well-received, making the session both impactful and enjoyable. A dedicated Q&A segment at the end allowed students to clarify their doubts and understand the importance of Excel in professional development.

In conclusion, the boot camp offered a valuable learning opportunity, equipping students with essential Excel skills that will contribute significantly to their academic growth and future career success.

Awareness Campaign on Menstrual Hygiene

Date of activity: 07/04/2025

Number of Students: 20

Venue: Dallookhera Village

Brief about the activity:

On April 7, 2025, a group of 20 students from Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies visited Dallookhera village as part of their NSS (National Service Scheme) community outreach program. The team was accompanied by NSS programme coordinators Dr. Ashish Kaushal and Mr. Chetan Khanna.

During the visit, the students undertook a noble initiative to promote menstrual hygiene among rural women. As part of the awareness campaign, sanitary pads were distributed to 50 families in the village. The students engaged with local women and girls, educating them about the importance of maintaining menstrual hygiene and the health risks associated with unhygienic practices.

The core agenda of the visit was to spread awareness that every girl deserves to feel empowered and confident during her period, and to promote the use of sanitary pads as a basic yet essential component of women's health. Through interactive discussions and personal engagement, the NSS volunteers aimed to break taboos surrounding menstruation and encourage open dialogue on the subject.

The visit was a meaningful step towards community upliftment and reinforced the spirit of social responsibility among the students.

Outreach Visit to Primary Government School

Date of activity: 09/04/2025

Number of Students: 28

Venue: Primary Government School, Lucknow

Brief about the activity:

On 9th April, 2025, a group of 28 students from the NSS unit of Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies (LPCPS), accompanied by their Programme Coordinator Dr. Ashish Kaushal and Mr. Chetan Khanna, visited a primary government school in a nearby village. The visit was part of their community outreach initiative aimed at supporting underprivileged students and understanding the challenges faced in rural education.

During the visit, the NSS volunteers distributed essential stationery items such as notebooks, pens, pencils, and erasers to the young students. This small act aimed to encourage them in their academic journey and provide much-needed learning materials. The volunteers also spent time interacting with the children, engaging them in light-hearted conversations and activities.

Moreover, the NSS students took the opportunity to listen to the problems and concerns shared by the village students. These included lack of proper infrastructure, insufficient teaching staff, and scarcity of basic educational resources. The LPCPS team assured the school of continued support and expressed their commitment to bringing attention to these issues.

The visit was a meaningful experience for both the NSS volunteers and the school children, fostering a sense of empathy, responsibility, and social awareness among the students of LPCPS.

Industrial Visit to SLGM Beverages (Coca-Cola)

Date of activity: 16/04/2025

Number of Students: 30

Venue: Safedabad, Barabanki

Brief about the activity:

The NSS Unit of Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies (LPCPS) organized an educational industrial visit on 16th April, 2025 to SLGM Beverages (Coca-Cola), Safedabad, for 30 students from the B. Com and B. Com (H) programs. The visit aimed to provide practical exposure and industry insights into the functioning of a leading beverage manufacturing unit.

The students were accompanied by NSS Programme Coordinator Dr. Ashish Kaushal (Associate Professor), along with faculty members Mrs. Saloni Agarwal (Assistant Professor), Ms. Rashmi Sachan (Assistant Professor), and Dr. Mayank Singh (Associate Professor, LPCPS). During the visit, students observed various stages of beverage production, including bottling, packaging, and quality control processes.

The industrial experts at SLGM Beverages guided the students through the facility and shared valuable information about operational efficiency, automation, supply chain management, and sustainability practices within the Coca-Cola production system. The visit enriched the students' understanding of industrial practices and offered a real-time learning experience that complemented their academic curriculum.

Overall, the visit was highly informative and engaging, bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application. The NSS Unit continues to play a pivotal role in facilitating such meaningful learning opportunities for the holistic development of students.
