National Solar & Electric Vehicle Expo- 2024

Date of activity: 07/03/2024

Number of students: 35

Venue: Indira Gandhi Pratishthan in Gomti Nagar, Lucknow

Brief about the activity:

On March 7, 2024, a group of 35 students from LPCPS, under the guidance of the NSS unit, visited the National Solar & Electric Vehicle Expo 2024 held at Indira Pratishthan, Gomtinagar, Lucknow. The expo aimed to showcase the latest advancements in solar energy and electric vehicle technology, reflecting the growing importance of sustainable solutions for a cleaner environment.

The students had the opportunity to explore various exhibits, including state-of-the-art solar panels, electric vehicles, and energy-efficient innovations. Several industry experts and professionals conducted live demonstrations and shared valuable insights into the future of renewable energy and green transportation. The students interacted with exhibitors, learning about the latest trends in electric mobility, solar energy applications, and the significance of these technologies in reducing carbon footprints.

The visit provided students with a firsthand experience of cutting-edge technologies that align with global efforts towards sustainability and environmental conservation. It also offered a deeper understanding of how the adoption of renewable energy and electric vehicles can significantly contribute to a cleaner and greener future.

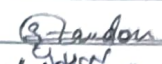

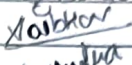

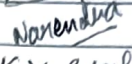

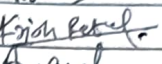

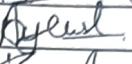

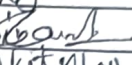

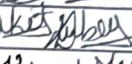

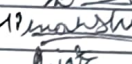

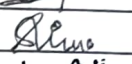

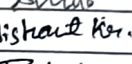

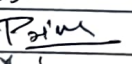

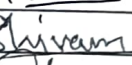

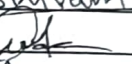

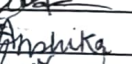

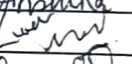

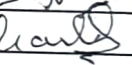

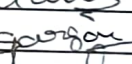

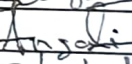

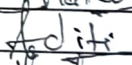

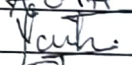

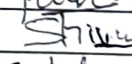

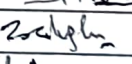

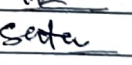

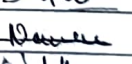

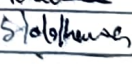

This informative visit inspired students to consider careers in the renewable energy sector and reinforced the importance of adopting sustainable practices for a better tomorrow.

Importance of First-Time Vote

Date of activity: 12/03/2024

Number of Students- 22

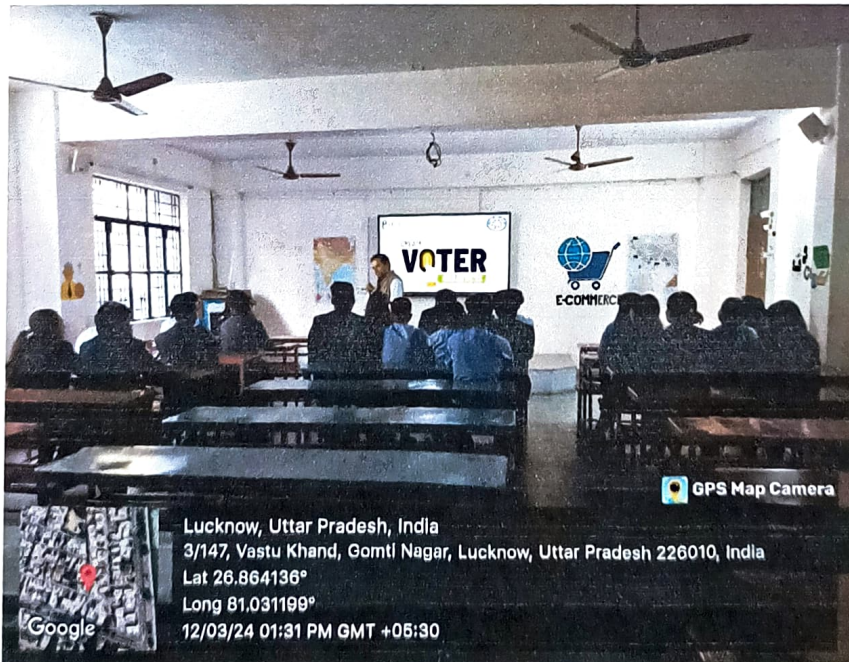

Venue: Room No. 101, Block A

Brief about the activity:

On 12th March 2024, the NSS unit of Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies (LPCPS) organized an insightful session on the "Importance of First-Time Vote," led by Dr. Ashish Kaushal. The session aimed to educate and inspire students, particularly those eligible for the first time to vote, about the significance of exercising their democratic right.

Dr. Kaushal, a distinguished speaker with extensive knowledge in political science and civic engagement, emphasized the power of voting in shaping the nation's future. He discussed how voting is not just a right but a responsibility that comes with the opportunity to influence government decisions, policies, and the overall direction of the country. He further highlighted the role of informed voting, encouraging students to understand political processes, party manifestos, and the impact of their vote on both local and national levels.

The session was interactive, with Dr. Kaushal addressing queries and encouraging discussions among students. He stressed the importance of staying informed about candidates and their ideologies before casting a vote. The session left a lasting impression on the students, motivating them to actively participate in the democratic process and make their first vote a meaningful one. The event contributed significantly to fostering civic responsibility among the youth.

VOTERS AWARENESS PROGRAMME PHASE 1 (Nearby areas of LPCPS)

Date of activity: 13/03/2024
Number of participants: Students- 23
Venue: Nearby College
Brief about the activity:

On 13th March 2024, a voter awareness campaign was conducted by 23 students of Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies in the college vicinity. The event, organized under the supervision of the NSS (National Service Scheme) unit, aimed to educate the local community about the importance of voting and the electoral process. The students engaged with residents, explaining voter registration, the significance of exercising the right to vote, and how voting contributes to the democratic process.

The awareness drive involved distributing informative pamphlets and posters highlighting key details about voter eligibility, the voting process, and how to ensure one's name is included in the voter list. Students also addressed common misconceptions about voting and encouraged first-time voters to participate actively in elections.

The initiative was well-received by the local population, with many showing interest in registering as voters. The students successfully created a positive impact by empowering individuals with the knowledge to make informed decisions during elections. The event exemplified the role of youth in strengthening democracy and emphasized the importance of being an active and responsible citizen. The NSS unit's involvement ensured the event's success, fostering a spirit of social responsibility among the students and the community alike.

Overall Health Check-up

Date of activity: 18/04/2024
Number of beneficiaries: 48
Venue: Incubation Room, Block A, LPCPS
Brief about the activity:

On 18th April 2024, NSS unit of Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized an overall health check-up for its faculty and staff in collaboration with Medwing Healthcare. The initiative aimed to promote the health and well-being of the college's employees and raise awareness about the importance of regular health check-ups.

The health camp was set up on the college premises, where professional medical practitioners from Medwing Healthcare conducted comprehensive health assessments. The check-up included general health screenings, blood pressure measurements, blood sugar tests, BMI calculations, and Dental Checkup. The doctors also provided advice on maintaining a healthy lifestyle and the importance of preventive healthcare.

The event was well-received by the faculty and staff, who appreciated the opportunity to undergo thorough health assessments. It provided them with valuable insights into their health status, enabling them to take timely actions in case of any health concerns.

The college management recognized the significance of this initiative, as it not only prioritized the health of employees but also fostered a culture of wellness and preventive care within the institution. The collaboration with Medwing Healthcare was praised for its professional approach, making the event a success. This initiative marked another step in the college's commitment to supporting the health and wellness of its community.

Voters Awareness Program- Phase 2 in Village

Date of activity: 06/05/2024

Number of participants: Students- 28

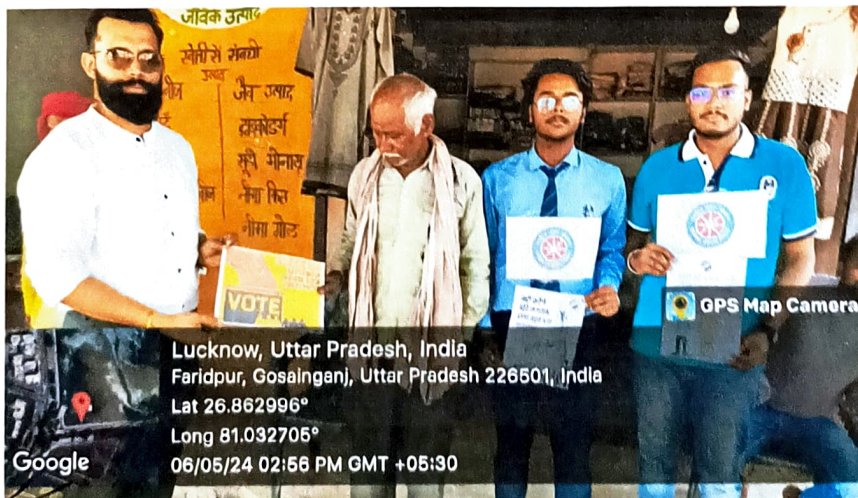

Venue: Fareedpur village

Brief about the activity:

On 6 May 2024, under the Village Adoption Program (VAP), a team from NSS unit of Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies conducted a Voter Awareness Campaign at Fareedpur village. Led by three faculty members and a group of enthusiastic students, the campaign aimed to educate villagers on the importance of voting and their role as responsible citizens. Interactive sessions were held where VAP Volunteers explained the voting process, rights, and the critical role each vote plays in democracy. The team organized discussions, distributed informative pamphlets, and encouraged participants to share their thoughts on community progress and democratic involvement.

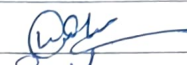

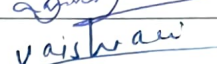

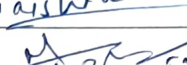

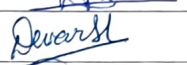

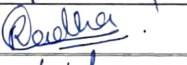

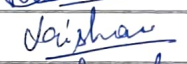

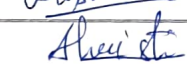

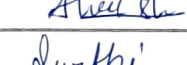

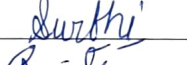

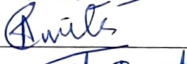

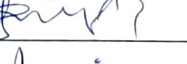

The event saw active participation from local residents, including youth and elders, who engaged in conversations on the significance of informed voting. The campaign concluded with a positive response from the community, which pledged to participate actively in upcoming elections. This successful event was a testament to the college's commitment to fostering civic awareness and encouraging responsible citizenship.
