JANMASHTAMI FESTIVAL

Date: 27 Aug, 2024

Krishna Janmashtami (Kṛṣṇajanmāṣṭamī), also known simply as Krishnashtami, Janmashtami, or Gokulashtami, is an annual Hindu festival that celebrates the birth of Krishna, the eighth avatar of Vishnu. In certain Hindu texts, such as the Gita Govinda, Krishna has been identified as supreme God and the source of all avatars.

It is an important festival, particularly in the Vaishnavism tradition of Hinduism.[6] The celebratory customs associated with Janmashtami include a celebration festival, reading and recitation of religious texts, dance and enactments of the life of Krishna according to the Bhagavata Purana.

On the occasion of JANMASHTAMI, Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a dance drama by dance club and drama club in which students of different departments participated with full zeal.

GANESH CHATHURTHI

Date: 7th SEP, 2023

The auspicious Hindu festival of Ganesh Chaturthi is celebrated annually with pomp in India. Also known as Vinayaka Chaturthi or Ganesh Utsav, the day marks the birth of Lord Ganesha and is observed for ten days by devotees. It falls annually on the Chaturthi tithi of Shukla Paksha. The last day of the 10-day celebrations is marked as Ganesh Visarjan.

On this day, devotees immerse Lord Ganesha's idols in water. While Ganesh Chaturthi is commemorated all across the country, it happens on a grand scale in Maharashtra,

As Lord Ganesha steps into his space and time, we here, at LPCPS welcome his homecoming on this auspicious day, praying for knowledge, peace and prosperity. Here's an offering him love and devotion and welcoming his aura into our beings

DIWALI FESTIVAL

Date: 30 OCT, 2024

Diwali, also called Deepavali, is the Hindu festival of lights, with variations celebrated in other Indian religions such as Jainism and Sikhism. It symbolises the spiritual victory of Dharma over Adharma, light over darkness, good over evil, and knowledge over ignorance.

Diwali is connected to various religious events, deities and personalities, such as being the day Rama returned to his kingdom in Ayodhya with his wife Sita and his brother Lakshmana after defeating the demon king Ravana.[16] It is also widely associated with Lakshmi, the goddess of prosperity, and Ganesh, the god of wisdom and the remover of obstacles. Other regional traditions connect the holiday to Vishnu, Krishna, Durga, Shiva, Kali, Hanuman, Kubera, Yama, Yami, Dhanvantari, or Vishvakarman.

WORKSHOP ON VIGILANCE AWARENESS

Date: 28 OCT, 2024

The Central Vigilance Commission on 31st October 2000 introduced the practice of observing the week starting from the birthday of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel as the Vigilance Awareness Week. This was an effort at making the employees of the government of India organisations aware of the dangers and harm caused by corruption, which is anti poor, anti development and anti national.

31st October was chosen as the date as it is the birthday of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, one of the great leaders of our country, who is an outstanding icon and role model for patriotism, political integrity, visionary but highly pragmatic leadership and value based politics. The birthday of Sardar Patel was deliberately chosen because during the freedom struggle, Sardar Patel was the leader who did all the demanding hard work not visible in the public eye of raising resources and organising the political movement. This task called for, absolute integrity, an excellent capacity for management and inspiring leadership.

Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a small session for the students of LPCPS which was given Dr Hari Mohan Saxena Assistant professor (Department of management). All the students were very enthusiastic for this session and actively participated thought out this event.

CHRISTMAS

Date: 25th Dec, 2024

Christmas is an annual festival commemorating the birth of Jesus Christ, observed primarily on December 25 as a religious and cultural celebration among billions of people around the world.

A feast central to the liturgical year in Christianity, it follows the season of Advent (which begins four Sundays before) or the Nativity Fast, and initiates the season of Christmastide, which historically in the West lasts twelve days and culminates on Twelfth Night.

Christmas is celebrated to remember the birth of Jesus Christ, who Christians believe is the Son of God. The name 'Christmas' comes from the Mass of Christ (or Jesus).

On the occasion of the Christmas Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a game session named Secret Santa, where Faculty members of the college draw random names to become someone's Secret Santa. The Secret Santa is given a wish list of gift ideas to choose from to give to their chosen giftee. After opening their present, the giftee has to guess which member of the group was their Secret Santa. All the Faculty members were very enthusiastic for this session and actively participated thought out this event.

REPUBLIC DAY

Date: 26th Jan, 2025

Republic Day is a national holiday in India commemorating the adoption of the Constitution of India, and the country's transition to a republic which came into effect on 26 January 1950.

The constitution replaced the Government of India Act 1935 as the governing document of India, thus turning the nation from a dominion into a republic post its independence from the British Raj in 1947. The constitution was adopted by the Constituent Assembly of India on 26 November 1949 and came into effect on 26 January 1950. The date was chosen as the Indian National Congress proclaimed Purna Swaraj (complete independence) on this day in 1930.

On the occasion of the Republic Day Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized Flag hosting session for the students and faculty members of LPCPS. All the students were very enthusiastic for this session and actively participated thought out this event.

REPORT- SESSION ON WOMEN EMPOWERMENT AND GENDER EQUALITY

On 3rd February 2025, a session on Women Empowerment, Gender Equality, and Child Safety was held at Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies in the conference hall at 3:00 PM for the faculty. The session was conducted by Ms. Sneha Rai, a Sub-Inspector renowned for her social initiatives.

Ms. Rai began by emphasizing the importance of empowering women and fostering gender equality in educational institutions and society. She highlighted progress made in these areas and addressed ongoing challenges through engaging discussions and real-life examples.

The session also focused on child safety, where Ms. Rai provided insights into recognizing signs of abuse, understanding legal protections, and adopting proactive measures to ensure children's well-being.

The interactive nature of the session allowed faculty members to share their perspectives, ask questions, and discuss the implementation of these principles in their professional roles. Ms. Rai encouraged everyone to serve as role models and advocates for change, both within and outside the college.

The session concluded with a note of gratitude to Ms. Rai for her inspiring and informative presentation. Faculty members expressed their appreciation for the valuable insights and actionable advice shared during the session.

The event reinforced the college's commitment to promoting a safer, more inclusive, and equitable society through education and awareness.

The celebration began with an Aarti dedicated to Goddess Saraswati, the goddess of wisdom, knowledge, and learning. Faculty members and students joined together in the prayer, creating a serene and spiritual ambiance. The chanting of mantras and the fragrance of incense sticks filled the surroundings, invoking a sense of devotion and gratitude.

Following the Aarti, the event continued with several spiritual activities. The highlight was the offering of yellow-colored sweets and fruits, signifying the importance of the color yellow in Basant Panchami, which represents energy, warmth, and the arrival of spring. Students actively participated in the arrangements and shared anecdotes about the cultural significance of this auspicious day.

The event concluded with blessings being sought from Goddess Saraswati for academic success and prosperity. Faculty members emphasized the importance of knowledge and hard work in achieving goals.

Report - National Science Day Celebration

The National Science Day was celebrated with enthusiasm and intellectual fervor at Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies on 28th February 2025. The event was conducted in respective classrooms, fostering a focused and engaging atmosphere for the celebration.

The program began with a speech highlighting the significance of National Science Day, commemorating the discovery of the Raman Effect by Sir C.V. Raman. Faculty members emphasized the pivotal role of science and technology in shaping the modern world, inspiring students to pursue scientific endeavors with curiosity and determination.

A key feature of the celebration was the delivery of inspirational quotes by Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam, the "Missile Man of India." His words, such as "Dream, dream, dream. Dreams transform into thoughts and thoughts result in action" and "You have to dream before your dreams can come true," resonated deeply with the students, instilling a sense of purpose and passion for scientific innovation.

Classroom discussions followed the speeches, where students shared their thoughts on the importance of science in everyday life and its role in national development. Faculty members facilitated these discussions, encouraging critical thinking and a spirit of inquiry among students.

The event concluded with a pledge to embrace scientific thinking and contribute to the progress of society. The celebration not only honored the contributions of Indian scientists but also inspired young minds to dream big and work diligently toward their goals.

The National Science Day celebration was a meaningful and enlightening experience, reinforcing the significance of science and its impact on the world.
