

REPORT- MATRIBHASHA DIWAS CELEBRATION

In alignment with the Government of India's initiative, the Ministry of Education's Department of Higher Education, Language Division, Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies celebrated Matribhasha Diwas on 21st February 2025.

The celebration, held at the college's conference hall, brought together students, faculty, and staff members. The event aimed to promote Indian languages and encourage students to take pride in their linguistic heritage.

During the celebration, students shared their thoughts on measures to make mother tongues aspirational languages, implement multilingualism, and promote linguistic diversity. The event emphasized the importance of:

- Raising awareness about the significance of mother languages
- Promoting linguistic and cultural diversity
- Encouraging the use of mother tongues in everyday life

Matribhasha Diwas celebrations at Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies provided students with an opportunity to:

- Take pride in their linguistic and cultural heritage
- Value and respect the languages of others
- Foster a sense of unity in diversity

By observing Matribhasha Diwas, Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies reaffirmed its commitment to promoting linguistic diversity, preserving cultural heritage, and celebrating the richness of Indian languages.

Report - National Science Day Celebration

The National Science Day was celebrated with enthusiasm and intellectual fervor at Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies on 28th February 2025. The event was conducted in respective classrooms, fostering a focused and engaging atmosphere for the celebration.

The program began with a speech highlighting the significance of National Science Day, commemorating the discovery of the Raman Effect by Sir C.V. Raman. Faculty members emphasized the pivotal role of science and technology in shaping the modern world, inspiring students to pursue scientific endeavors with curiosity and determination.

A key feature of the celebration was the delivery of inspirational quotes by Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam, the "Missile Man of India." His words, such as "Dream, dream, dream. Dreams transform into thoughts and thoughts result in action" and "You have to dream before your dreams can come true," resonated deeply with the students, instilling a sense of purpose and passion for scientific innovation.

Classroom discussions followed the speeches, where students shared their thoughts on the importance of science in everyday life and its role in national development. Faculty members facilitated these discussions, encouraging critical thinking and a spirit of inquiry among students.

The event concluded with a pledge to embrace scientific thinking and contribute to the progress of society. The celebration not only honored the contributions of Indian scientists but also inspired young minds to dream big and work diligently toward their goals.

The National Science Day celebration was a meaningful and enlightening experience, reinforcing the significance of science and its impact on the world.
