GANESH CHATHURTHI

Date: 7th SEP, 2023

The auspicious Hindu festival of Ganesh Chaturthi is celebrated annually with pomp in India. Also known as Vinayaka Chaturthi or Ganesh Utsav, the day marks the birth of Lord Ganesha and is observed for ten days by devotees. It falls annually on the Chaturthi tithi of Shukla Paksha. The last day of the 10-day celebrations is marked as Ganesh Visarjan.

On this day, devotees immerse Lord Ganesha's idols in water. While Ganesh Chaturthi is commemorated all across the country, it happens on a grand scale in Maharashtra,

As Lord Ganesha steps into his space and time, we here, at LPCPS welcome his homecoming on this auspicious day, praying for knowledge, peace and prosperity. Here's an offering him love and devotion and welcoming his aura into our beings

DIWALI FESTIVAL

Date: 30 OCT, 2024

Diwali, also called Deepavali, is the Hindu festival of lights, with variations celebrated in other Indian religions such as Jainism and Sikhism. It symbolises the spiritual victory of Dharma over Adharma, light over darkness, good over evil, and knowledge over ignorance.

Diwali is connected to various religious events, deities and personalities, such as being the day Rama returned to his kingdom in Ayodhya with his wife Sita and his brother Lakshmana after defeating the demon king Ravana.[16] It is also widely associated with Lakshmi, the goddess of prosperity, and Ganesha, the god of wisdom and the remover of obstacles. Other regional traditions connect the holiday to Vishnu, Krishna, Durga, Shiva, Kali, Hanuman, Kubera, Yama, Yami, Dhanvantari, or Vishvakarman.

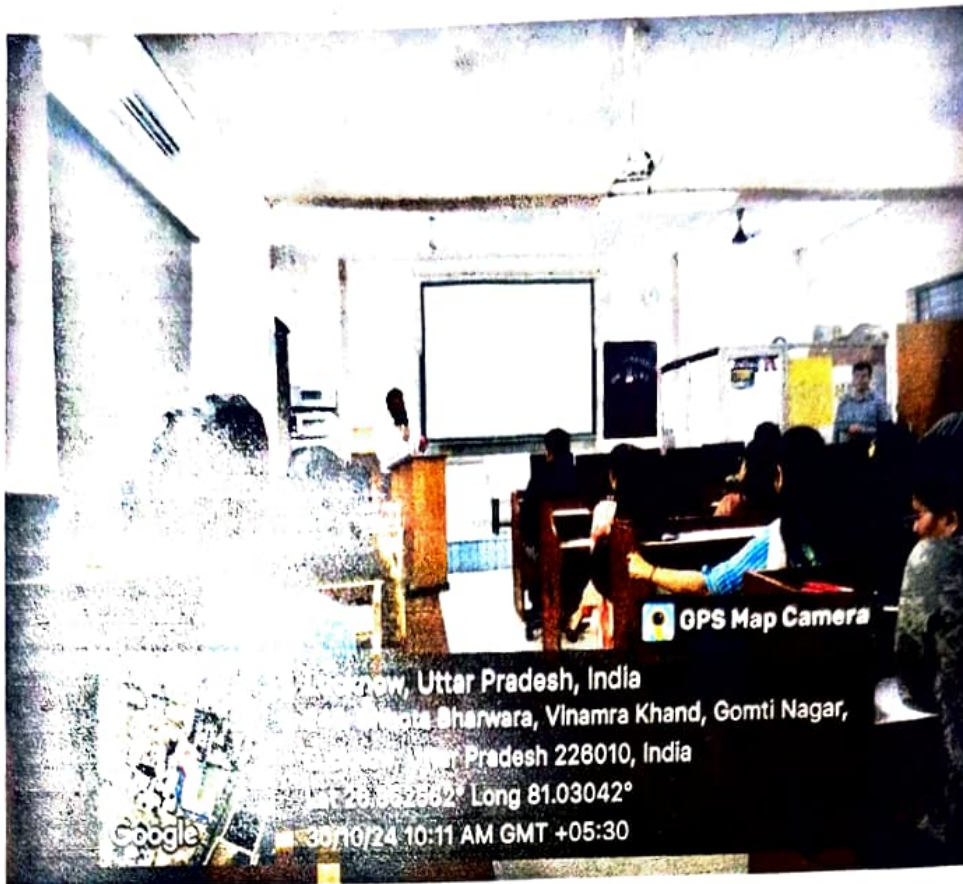

Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a small session for the faculty of LPCPS which was given Dr Laxmi Shankar Awasthi (Dean Academics) .All the were very enthusiastic for this session and actively participated thought out this event.

WORKSHOP ON VIGILANCE AWARENESS

Date: 28 OCT, 2024

The Central Vigilance Commission on 31st October 2000 introduced the practice of observing the week starting from the birthday of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel as the Vigilance Awareness Week. This was an effort at making the employees of the government of India organisations aware of the dangers and harm caused by corruption, which is anti poor, anti development and anti national.

31st October was chosen as the date as it is the birthday of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, one of the great leaders of our country, who is an outstanding icon and role model for patriotism, political integrity, visionary but highly pragmatic leadership and value based politics. The birthday of Sardar Patel was deliberately chosen because during the freedom struggle, Sardar Patel was the leader who did all the demanding hard work not visible in the public eye of raising resources and organising the political movement. This task called for, absolute integrity, an excellent capacity for management and inspiring leadership.

Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a small session for the students of LPCPS which was given Dr Hari Mohan Saxsena Assistant professor (Department of management). All the students were very enthusiastic for this session and actively participated thought out this event.

CHRISTMAS

Date: 25th Dec, 2024

Christmas is an annual festival commemorating the birth of Jesus Christ, observed primarily on December 25 as a religious and cultural celebration among billions of people around the world.

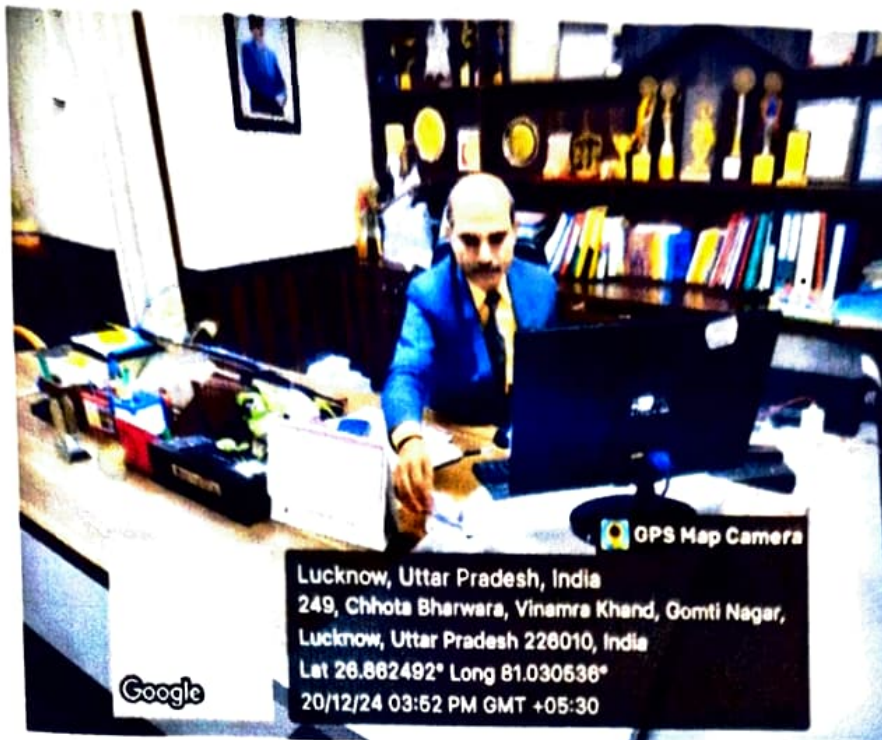

A feast central to the liturgical year in Christianity, it follows the season of Advent (which begins four Sundays before) or the Nativity Fast, and initiates the season of Christmastide, which historically in the West lasts twelve days and culminates on Twelfth Night.

Christmas is celebrated to remember the birth of Jesus Christ, who Christians believe is the Son of God. The name 'Christmas' comes from the Mass of Christ (or Jesus).

On the occasion of the Christmas Lucknow Public College of Professional Studies organized a game session named Secret Santa, where Faculty members of the college draw random names to become someone's Secret Santa. The Secret Santa is given a wish list of gift ideas to choose from to give to their chosen giftee. After opening their present, the giftee has to guess which member of the group was their Secret Santa. All the Faculty members were very enthusiastic for this session and actively participated thought out this event.
